Appointing a Member of the Otago Harbour Board.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

WHEREAS it is provided by section thirty-seven of the Harbours Act, 1923, that in the case of the death of a member of a Harbour Board his office shall become vacant and such vacancy shall be deemed an extraordinary vacancy :

And whereas it is provided by subsection two of section thirty-eight of the said Act that when an elective member other than a representative of a constituent district vacates his office on the Board through the operation of the said section thirty-seven the Governor-General may, by Warrant under his hand, appoint some qualified person in his place :

And whereas Robert Duncan, an elective member of the Otago Harbour Board, being a representative of the combined district of the City of Dunedin and the Borough of St. Kilda, is deceased, and it is desirable to appoint a qualified person in his place :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in exercise of the hereinbefore-recited power and authority, doth hereby appoint David Copeland to be a member of the Otago Harbour Board as a representative of the combined district aforesaid in the place of Robert Duncan, deceased.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 5th day of December, 1939.

W. E. PARRY,
For the Minister of Marine.
