Control of Licensed Radio-stations.

WHEREAS an emergency has arisen in which it is expedient, in the public interest, that His Majesty's Government shall have control over the transmission or reception of messages by the apparatus of any licensed radio-station:

Now, therefore, I, Frederick Jones, the Minister of Telegraphs of New Zealand, in pursuance of Regulation 26 of the Radio Regulations 1932, made under the authority of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1928, do hereby notify that it shall be lawful for any officer of His Majesty's Navy or Army, or any other person authorized in that behalf by the Admiralty or by the Minister of Telegraphs, to take possession of or to cause the apparatus or any part thereof of any licensed radio-station to be taken possession of and/or to take in respect of any such station any or all of the actions prescribed in the said regulation.

As witness my hand at Wellington, this 1st day of September, 1939.

F. JONES, Minister of Telegraphs.

By Authority: E. V. PAUL, Government Printer, Wellington.
