The Passport Emergency Regulations 1939.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 2nd day of September, 1939.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Public Safety Conservation Act, 1932, and to a Proclamation of Emergency now in force under that Act, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

REGULATION 1.—PRELIMINARY.

- (1) These regulations may be cited as the Passport Emergency Regulations, 1939.
- (2) In these regulations, where not inconsistent with the context, "passport" means a passport or other like document of identity—
 - (a) Which establishes to the satisfaction of the Collector of Customs the nationality and identity of the person to whom it relates; and
 - (b) Which has been issued by the Government of the country of which the person to whom it relates is a subject or citizen or protected person, and which is still in force, and to which there is attached a photograph of the person to whom it relates; and
 - (c) Which relates to the person in whose possession it is; and
 - (d) Which, in the case of an alien landing in New Zealand (other than the master or a member of the crew of any vessel) has been marked with a visa which is still in force, by a British Diplomatic or Consular Officer or some British public official duly authorized in that behalf:

Provided that such visa shall not be required in respect of nationals of any country between the Government of which and His Majesty's Government in New Zealand there is for the time being in force an agreement to dispense with the requirement of passport visas, the existence of which agreement is notified from time to time in the Gazette.
