Altering and redefining the Boundaries of the New River Hundred Rabbit District.—(Notice No. Ag. 3640.)

GALWAY, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 14th day of February, 1939.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section thirty-one of the Rabbit Nuisance Act, 1928, it is enacted that the Governor-General, at the request of the Board of any Rabbit District, may by Order in Council alter and redefine the boundaries of its district:

And whereas the district known as the New River Hundred Rabbit District has been constituted under and for the purposes of the said Act:

And whereas the Board of the said district has, pursuant to the said section thirty-one of the said Act, requested that the boundaries of its district be altered and redefined by including an additional area therein:

And whereas the consent of a majority of the persons in such additional area qualified to be enrolled on the ratepayers' list for the said district has been given to the inclusion of such additional areas in the said district:

And whereas it is deemed expedient to alter and redefine the boundaries of the said district accordingly:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by the said Act, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby—

1. Alter and redefine the boundaries of the said district so constituted as aforesaid;
2. Declare that the boundaries of the said district shall be those set forth in the Schedule hereto; and, further,
3. Declare that this Order in Council shall come into force on the day following publication hereof in the Gazette.
