

3. No person shall for any purpose assume or use, or purport to assume or use, or continue the use of any name other than a name by which he was known at the date of coming into force of these regulations.

4. No deed poll or other instrument by which a change of name to which these regulations apply is effected or declared shall be accepted for filing in any Registry of the Supreme Court unless evidence is produced to the Registrar that exemption has been granted from the provisions of these regulations pursuant to Regulation 6 hereof.

5. No person shall publish any notification of a change of name to which these regulations apply unless exemption has been granted from the provisions of these regulations pursuant to Regulation 6 hereof: Provided that the fact of publication in the Gazette of a notification of a change of name shall be sufficient evidence in favour of any person subsequently publishing a similar notification that such exemption has been granted.

6. The Minister of Internal Affairs may, if it appears desirable in any particular case, grant an exemption from the provisions of these regulations.

7. A fee of 10s. shall be payable into the Consolidated Fund in respect of the grant of exemption herein mentioned.

C. A. JEFFERY,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
