The Factory Emergency Regulations 1939.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 4th day of September, 1939.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Public Safety Conservation Act, 1932, there being a Proclamation of Emergency now in force under that Act, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

REGULATION 1.—PRELIMINARY.

(1) These regulations may be cited as the Factory Emergency Regulations 1939.

(2) These regulations shall be read together with and deemed part of the Supply Control Emergency Regulations 1939.

(3) In these regulations, unless inconsistent with the context,—

“Controller” means the Factory Controller appointed under these regulations; and includes any person for the time being authorized to exercise or perform any of the Controller’s powers or functions:

“Factory” means any building, office, or place in which any person is employed, directly or indirectly, in any handicraft, or in preparing or manufacturing goods for trade or sale; and includes any building, office, or place in which work such as is ordinarily performed in a factory is performed for or on behalf of any local authority, whether for trade or sale or not; but does not include any building in course of erection, nor any temporary workshop or shed for workmen engaged in the erection of any building, nor any bakehouse (meaning thereby any building or place in which any article of food is baked or prepared for baking for sale for human consumption):
