The Mining Emergency Regulations 1939.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 4th day of September, 1939.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Public Safety Conservation Act, 1932, there being a Proclamation of Emergency now in force under that Act, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

REGULATION 1.—PRELIMINARY.

(1) These regulations may be cited as the Mining Emergency Regulations 1939.

(2) These regulations shall be read together with and deemed part of the Supply Control Emergency Regulations 1939.

(3) In these regulations, unless inconsistent with the context,—

“Controller” means the Mining Controller appointed under these regulations and includes any person for the time being authorized to exercise or perform any of the Controller’s powers or functions:

“Mine” means a mine within the meaning of the Mining Act, 1926; and includes a coal-mine within the meaning of the Coal-mines Act, 1925:

“Gasworks” means any works used for the manufacture and storage of coal-gas.

“Mining materials” means any materials or goods capable of being used in or for the purposes of any mine or gasworks or capable of being dealt with in or for the purposes of any mine or gasworks, whether by being manufactured, improved, altered, or prepared, or otherwise; and includes goods that have been wholly or partly so dealt with; and also includes any tools, machinery, plant, or equipment capable of being used in or for the purposes of any mine or gasworks; and also includes any patent rights relating to any such materials, goods, tools, machinery, plant, or equipment:

“Product” means any product or by-product of any mine or gasworks:
