* In these five cases a condition was imposed on each license prohibiting the sales of the footwear manufactured by the licensee concerned other than through the retail footwear shop or shops (as the case may be) owned and operated by the licensee on the 8th April, 1940.
 † This license covers the manufacture of sandals of a special type only.
 ‡ This license is restricted to cover the manufacture of 300 pairs only per annum.
 § This license covers the manufacture of special type overshoes only.
 ¶ The decision of the Bureau declining manufacture by the Fairstitch method, was made on the 11th April, 1940.
 ¶ The decision of the Bureau declining manufacture by the Veldtschoen method, was made on the 11th April, 1940.
 NOTE.—With regard to the column headed "Methods of manufacture excluded from license," the crosses do not indicate the methods for which the licenses are granted, but those which are expressly excluded from the operations authorized by the licenses.

2. Applications from the following were granted in respect to the operations indicated:—

- Hayden, A., Auckland, Machining uppers.
- Staples and Hardy, Ltd., Auckland, Stitching and screwing, machining and finishing.

3. An application from J. L. Toomer, Auckland, for a license to engage in the industry was declined.
