

the provisions of these regulations in the same manner in all respects as if he had not yet been called up for service with the armed forces:

Provided that where an appeal is allowed solely on the ground specified in paragraph (c) of clause (1) of Regulation 21 hereof the Director may at any time after the allowance of the appeal by notice given to the appellant again call him up for service with the armed forces if he is satisfied that the appellant has ceased to be engaged in the occupation in which he was engaged on the allowance of his appeal, or that by reason of a change in the conditions or circumstances of his occupation his calling up is no longer contrary to the public interest, and the appellant shall thereupon become a member of the armed force specified in the notice accordingly, and all the provisions of these regulations shall, so far as applicable, apply to him in the same manner as if he had again been duly called up for service by a notice in the Gazette under Regulation 16 hereof.

REGULATION 31.—APPEALS BY PERSONS SUFFERING UNDUE HARDSHIP.

(1) Any such appeal may be instituted by any person in respect of any man called up as aforesaid for service with the armed forces (who shall for the purposes of these regulations be deemed to be the appellant) on the ground that the calling up of the appellant will be a cause of undue hardship to that person, or that by reason of the occupation of the appellant his calling up is contrary to the public interest.

(2) With respect to the hearing of any such appeal the provisions of these regulations as to notices to the appellant and as to the right of the appellant to be heard and represented shall apply to the person who institutes the appeal as well as to the appellant.

(3) In the case of any man employed by the Crown the rights conferred by this regulation may be exercised either by the Public Service Commissioner or by the Permanent Head of the Department in which that man is employed.

REGULATION 32.—APPEALS BY THE DIRECTOR.

An appeal may be instituted by the Director in respect of any man called up as aforesaid for service with the armed forces (who shall for the purposes of these regulations be deemed to be the appellant) on the ground that by reason of his occupation the calling up of the appellant is contrary to the public interest.

REGULATION 33.—APPEALS BY TWO OR MORE PERSONS.

The dismissal of an appeal instituted by any person (whether or not he is the appellant himself) shall not preclude an appeal by any other person, whether on the same ground or on any other grounds.

MEDICAL EXAMINATION AND TREATMENT.

REGULATION 34.—NATIONAL MEDICAL COMMITTEE.

In the exercise of his functions under these regulations the Minister of Health shall have regard to the recommendations of the National Medical Committee appointed to advise the Government in relation to medical matters arising out of the present war.

REGULATION 35.—REGIONAL DEPUTIES.

(1) For the purposes of these regulations the Minister of Health may appoint such number of Regional Deputies as he from time to time thinks necessary.

(2) Each Regional Deputy shall be a registered medical practitioner and shall hold office during the pleasure of the Minister of Health.
