

timber is found to have been cut, or should any breach of the conditions have occurred, or if, in the opinion of the Commissioner, the interest of the Crown has been jeopardized.

3. The purchaser of the timber shall have no right to the use of the land.

4. The purchaser shall have the right to cut and remove only such trees as can be milled and shall have no right to split posts or cut firewood.

5. The licensee shall have the right to construct and use such tramways as may be found necessary for the proper cutting, milling, and removal of the timber.

6. If at any time during the currency of the license a Field Inspector or other person duly authorized by the Commissioner of Crown Lands shall report, or it otherwise appears that the timber on the said areas is being improperly cut, or that the interests of the Crown are being prejudiced, the Commissioner of Crown Lands may, by notice in writing to the licensee and his sureties, suspend the license, pending investigation, and the Commissioner may cancel such license if it is found that its conditions have been infringed, without prejudice to any proceedings for damage done, recovery of amount due for royalty, or otherwise.

7. No compensation will be given nor shall any be claimed for any error, discrepancy, or misdescription whatever in respect of the Schedule or the conditions herein described.

8. All timber, whether standing or felled or in logs, shall remain the property of the Crown until all instalments shall have been paid.

9. Should any dispute arise as to boundaries, the decision of the Commissioner of Crown Lands shall be final and conclusive.

10. The timber will be sold generally in accordance with the areas and boundaries as shown on the sale maps, which may be seen at the District Lands and Survey Office, Invercargill.

11. The licensee shall not allow any sawdust to find its way into any watercourses of any description.

12. The highest or any bid will not necessarily be accepted.

13. The sale is subject to the necessary consent being obtained from the Timber Controller appointed under the Timber Emergency Regulations 1939.

14. If the timber is not sold at auction the right to purchase same at the upset price will remain open for application until further notice.
