WELLINGTON, SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1940.

Price Order No. 5.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon the Price Tribunal by the Control of Prices Emergency Regulations 1939, and with the authority of the Minister of Industries and Commerce, the Price Tribunal hereby makes the following Price Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as Price Order No. 5.
2. In this Order "prevailing price" means, in relation to the sale of beef, mutton, pork, veal, or lamb (including mince, tripe, and offal from the carcasses, but not including bacon or goods commonly known in the trade as "small-goods"), the price at which such beef, mutton, pork, veal, or lamb was sold by retail on the 29th June, 1940, or if no sale was made on that date, on the last preceding date on which such sale was made, at the same place and subject to the same terms and conditions.
3. The maximum price at which beef, mutton, pork, veal, or lamb (including mince, tripe, and offal from the carcasses, but not including bacon or goods commonly known in the trade as "small-goods") may be sold by retail at any place in New Zealand as from the 1st day of July, 1940, shall be not more than the prevailing price plus an increase of $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per pound.

Dated this 28th day of June, 1940.

The seal of the Price Tribunal was affixed hereto in the presence of—

[L.S.]	W. J. HUNTER (Judge), President. H. L. WISE, Member.
