Munitions Manufacturing Labour Legislation Suspension Order 1941.

WHEREAS it appears to me to be necessary for securing the public safety, the defence of New Zealand, the efficient prosecution of any war in which His Majesty may be engaged, and for maintaining supplies and services essential to the life of the community, I, Henry Greathead Rex Mason, acting for the Minister of Labour, pursuant to the Labour Legislation Emergency Regulations 1940, do hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Munitions Manufacturing Labour Legislation Suspension Order 1941.
2. This Order shall apply to the female workers employed by Pallo Engineering, Ltd., whilst they are engaged on urgent munition work and to the employer of such workers.
3. The provision of subsection (1) of section 21 of the Factories Act, 1921–22, and of subsection (2) of section 3 and of section 5 of the Factories Amendment Act, 1936, and of any award or industrial agreement or of any voluntary agreement affecting conditions of employment shall be and are hereby suspended in so far as they operate to restrict or prevent the employment of the workers referred to in clause 2 hereof before 8 a.m. or after 6 p.m., or on any Sunday or on any holiday or half-holiday, but such suspension shall be subject to the following conditions, viz.:—

- (1) For time worked before 8 a.m., time and a half rates shall be paid.
- (2) For time worked after 5 p.m., time and a half rates shall be paid for the first four hours and double time rates thereafter.
- (3) For time worked on Saturday up to 12 noon or for the first four hours, whichever is the earlier, time and a half rates shall be paid, and thereafter double time rates.
- (4) For all time worked on Sundays, double time rates shall be paid.

- (5) Where a worker is employed on any whole holiday she shall, in addition to the payment to which she is entitled under the Factories Act, 1921–22, and its amendments, be paid for the time worked on such holidays at the ordinary rate.
- (6) All extended hours beyond the daily or weekly limits prescribed by any Act, award, or agreement applicable shall be paid for in accordance with the award.

4. This Order shall come into effect on the day of the date hereof and shall continue in force until the 31st day of January, 1942.

Dated at Wellington, this 23rd day of December, 1941.

H. G. R. MASON,
For the Minister of Labour.
