Each of the persons named in the said Schedule (hereinafter referred to as "the contributor") shall be deemed to have been and to be a contributor to the Public Service Superannuation Fund during and in respect of the period of engagement of the contributor with the Association, subject, however, to the provisions of the aforesaid section fifteen of the Finance Act (No. 2), 1940, and to the following express conditions, namely:

(a) Each contributor shall pay to the credit of the Public Service Superannuation Fund on or before the date of readmission:

(i) In respect of his service as an employee of the Government prior to his engagement by the Association, a sum to be calculated by the Government Actuary as being equal to the amount of contributions refused to the contributor from the Public Service Superannuation Fund on his resignation from the Government Service, together with interest thereon computed at the rate of four per centum per annum with yearly rests from the date of such resignation to the date of readmission; and

(ii) In respect of the period between the date of the resignation of the contributor from the Government Service and the date of readmission (during which period he was an employee of the Association), a sum calculated by the Government Actuary as being equal to five per centum of the annual salary received by him from the Association during that period, together with interest thereon computed at the rate of four per centum per annum with yearly rests up to the date of readmission.

(b) The Association shall in respect of the service of each contributor with the Association between the date of his resignation from the Government Service and the date of readmission pay to the credit of the Public Service Superannuation Fund on or before the date of readmission a sum calculated by the Government Actuary as being:

(i) In the case of a male contributor sixty per centum of the amount to be paid to the credit of the fund by that contributor pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (ii) of the preceding clause (a) hereof.

(ii) In the case of a female contributor one hundred per centum of the amount to be paid to the credit of the fund by that contributor pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (ii) of the preceding clause (a) hereof.

(c) From the date of readmission there shall be payable to the fund at such times and in such instalments as may be determined by the Public Service Superannuation Board:

(i) By the contributor (in accordance with the said section fifteen) a contribution of five per centum of the salary for the time being payable to the contributor by the Association; and

(ii) By the Association, in the case of a male contributor sixty per centum and in the case of a female contributor one hundred per centum of the amount required by the preceding paragraph (i) to be paid by the contributor.

3. If any contributor is re-employed by the Association while in receipt of a retiring-allowance from the Public Service Superannuation Fund, no more of such retiring-allowance shall be paid in respect of any month than is equivalent, when added to the remuneration so received by him in that month, to one-twelfth of the annual salary on the basis of which he was contributing to the fund at the date of his retirement.

W. E. PARRY,
For the Minister of Public Works.
New Zealand Schools of Mines—Rules Governing Scholarship Examinations.

Mines Department,
17th June, 1941.

Six scholarships will be offered annually for competition by students attending Schools of Mines within the Dominion—three for the South Island and three for the North Island.

1. The scholarships will be tenable for four years at the University of Otago or elsewhere, at the rate of an annual value of £50 each to successful candidates who, while attending the classes at the University of Otago, have to reside away from their homes, and of £20 each to useful candidates who are able to reside at their homes while attending the University classes.

2. Holders of scholarships will be required to attend during the University session at the University of Otago (no class fees will be charged on subjects contained in the curriculum of the Otago School of Mines), and during the long recess will also be required to engage in approved practical work at one of the mines or batteries in the Dominion, or in the field with the New Zealand Geological Survey Department.

3. Qualifying examinations for scholarships shall be held in or about the month of November in each year on such days and at such centres as the Under-Secretary of the Mines Department may appoint.

4. The examination will embrace six of the following subjects, the scope and standard of which are prescribed in the syllabus of the New Zealand Schools of Mines:

- Mathematics
- Elementary Mechanics
- Theoretical Chemistry
- Practical Chemistry and Quantitative Analysis
- Electricity
- Geometrical and Mechanical Drawing
- General and Mining Geology
- Metalurgy of Gold and Silver
- Coal-mining
- Steam-boiler engineering
- Ventilation
- Land and Mine Surveying

- Land and Mine Surveying

6. The scholarships will be awarded to those candidates who, having complied with the prescribed conditions, obtain the highest total marks in three compulsory subjects and three optional subjects, but no scholarship shall be awarded to any candidate unless he has obtained not less than 60 per cent. of the marks in each of these six subjects.

7. The examination may be passed as a whole or in sections, and shall be open to all students attending Schools of Mines who are not less than sixteen years of age on the 1st day of November of the year in which the examination is held:

- Provided that no student, unless granted exemption under the last preceding clause, shall be eligible for examination in any subject unless he has attended regularly at a School of Mines within the Dominion for not less than one year at least 80 per cent. of the lectures in that subject.

8. The Minister of Mines may grant such exemption from the requirements of the last preceding clause as he thinks reasonable in any case where it was not practicable for a student to attend 80 per cent. of the lectures in a subject in which he desires to be examined, or where no lectures were held in any subject at the School of Mines at which he was a student, or where the Minister is satisfied on the certificate of a Director of a School of Mines that a student has, either prior to or during his attendance at a School of Mines, completed a satisfactory course of study in any such subject at some other institution.

9. The power of waiver exercisable under the last preceding clause shall be so exercised that no student shall be eligible to sit the examination unless he has attended the lectures prescribed for at least four subjects.

10. In order to qualify for a partial pass in the examination a candidate must obtain not less than 60 per cent. of the marks in each of the four subjects prescribed for at least four subjects.

11. No payment on account of any scholarship shall be made only in cases where neither steamer nor railway transport is available or where the cheapest form of transport is by motor-service. Receipts for each fare paid in excess of 5s. (other than railway fares) must accompany each application for a refund.

P. C. WEBB, Minister of Mines.
(Mines, N. 17/20.)
