George the Sixth, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas and of the British West Indies, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India and Sovereign of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, to all whom these Presents shall come, Greeting!

Whereas by the Fifty-second Clause of the Statutes of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire bearing date the Thirteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, power was reserved to the Sovereign of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting or dispensing with the same or any part thereof by a notification under the Royal Sign Manual:

We now, in pursuance and in exercise of the power thus vested in Us, do annul the Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth, and Thirty-ninth of the aforesaid Statutes of this Order and the same are hereby annulled accordingly, and in lieu of the Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth of the said Statutes, We do make, ordain and establish, by these Presents sealed with the Seal of the Order, the following Statutes and ordinances, namely—

XXVII. It is Ordained that a Military and Civil Medal of this Order shall be awarded to persons who render meritorious service warranting such mark of Our special appreciation. Such a Medal shall not be awarded to Members of any of the five Classes of the Order or to persons eligible for appointment thereto, and no Military Medal shall only be awarded to persons subordinate to those who are eligible for the Military Division of the various Classes of the Order, but a recipient of the Medal, whether Military or Civil, who may subsequently be appointed a Member of one of the five Classes of the Order, may continue to wear the Medal in addition to the Insignia of the Order.

It is further Ordained that on occasions when miniature decorations are worn, reproductions of the Medal in miniature may be worn by those to whom the Medal is awarded.

XXXIX. It is Ordained that services or acts deemed worthy of recognition by the award of the Medal, but rendered by a person upon whom the Medal has already been conferred, may be recorded by a Bar or Bars attached, for men, to the ribbon, and for women, to the centre of the bow, from which the Medal is suspended. It is further Ordained that when the ribbon is worn alone, the award of a Bar is to be indicated by the placing of a small silver rosette on the ribbon, a further rosette being added for each Bar.

And it is Our Will and Pleasure that these Statutes, sealed with the Seal of the said Order shall be taken and received as part and parcel of the Statutes thereof.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's under the Seal of the said Order, this fourteenth day of March, One Thousand Nine hundred and Forty-one, in the Fifth year of Our Reign.
