PART V.—ISSUE AND TERM OF LICENSE.

12. Every license shall at all times remain the property of the licensing authority.

17. In every license there shall be imposed the conditions set out in the said form numbered "2."

PART VII.—SECURITY.

The failure to make any such deposit immediately upon being required to do so shall, if a license shall have been previously issued, be a breach of the conditions of the license.

PART VIII.—RENEWAL OF LICENSE.

19. The holder of a license issued or renewed by the licensing authority pursuant to these by-laws may apply to the licensing authority for the renewal thereof for the purposes of these by-laws.

20. It shall not be necessary for an application for renewal to be made in writing, but the license of which renewal is sought shall upon application for renewal be delivered to the licensing authority.

21. The fee for renewal of any license shall be paid at the time of application and shall be as under:—

(i) For any renewal of a proprietor's or manager's license, £1.

24. All renewals shall be granted by endorsement of the license in that behalf signed by the secretary of the licensing authority or any person authorized by the licensing authority in that behalf.

25. A license which has been renewed as aforesaid shall enure for all purposes as if it were a license originally issued under these by-laws, and shall be liable to be dealt with in all respects as if it had been so issued and may be renewed from time to time pursuant to these by-laws for the purposes thereof.

26. The term for which any renewal of a license shall continue in force shall be one year from the 1st day of October in each year.

29. The chairman or secretary, together with any other officer of the licensing authority authorized by the licensing authority in that behalf, may at any time endorse on a license such memorandum relating to the conduct of the licensee in exercising or purporting to exercise the rights conferred by the license as such persons may think fit.

PART X.—NOTICES.

30. Any notice given by the licensing authority under these by-laws, or any conditions contained in a license issued pursuant to these by-laws, may be given under the hand of the secretary of the licensing authority in that behalf either personally or by sending it by registered post to the applicant or the licensee, as the case may be, at the address appearing in his application for a license, or, at the option of the licensing authority, at the address appearing on the license. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the same shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying, and posting an envelope containing the notice, which shall be deemed to be served at the time at which the envelope would be delivered in the ordinary course of registered post.
