Rubber Mills Labour Legislation Suspension Order 1942.

WHEREAS it appears to me to be necessary for securing the public safety, the defence of New Zealand, the efficient prosecution of any war in which His Majesty may be engaged, and for maintaining supplies and services essential to the life of the community, I, Patrick Charles Webb, Minister of Labour, pursuant to the Labour Legislation Emergency Regulations 1940, do hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Rubber Mills Labour Legislation Suspension Order 1942.

2. This Order applies to Reid (New Zealand) Rubber Mills, Ltd., Auckland, and to the employees of such company who come within the scope of the Northern Industrial District Rubber-workers' award dated the 14th day of December, 1939, and recorded in Book of Awards, Volume 39, page 1809.

3. The provisions of all Acts and all regulations thereunder and of the above-mentioned award shall be and are hereby suspended in so far as they operate to prevent an additional four hours a week being worked by the workers hereinbefore referred to at ordinary rates of pay on the five days of the week, Monday to Friday, both inclusive.

4. This Order shall come into effect on the day of the date hereof.

Dated at Wellington, this 16th day of February, 1942.

P. C. WEBB, Minister of Labour.
