Order under the Shipping Control Emergency Regulations 1939.

PURSUANT to the Shipping Control Emergency Regulations 1939 the Naval Board hereby gives notification as under:—

1. This order may be cited as the Shipping Control Radio Equipment Order 1942.
2. This order shall take effect on the day following the date of publication hereof in the Gazette.

3. In this order—

(a) A reference to a type of wave is a reference to the type of radio-electric emission so named and defined in Regulation 39 of the Radio Regulations 1932;
(b) "Authorized officer" has the same meaning as in the Shipping Radio Emergency Regulations 1941.

4. This order shall apply to all ships subject to the Shipping Control Emergency Regulations 1939 to which the Shipping Radio Emergency Regulations 1941 apply.

5. The master of every ship to which this order applies is responsible for compliance therewith on the part of all persons on board whether members of the crew or passengers.

6. Every such ship shall, in addition to the main aerial forming part of its radio-transmitting installation, be fitted with an auxiliary aerial for emergency use which shall be erected in a different plane from that of the main aerial.
