Providing for Building Regulations in certain Boroughs.

[LS.] C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by section three hundred and ninety of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1933, it is enacted that the Governor-General may make all such Proclamations and regulations as he thinks fit for the further or more effectually or particularly carrying out of the objects and purposes of the said Act:

And whereas it is expedient that special provision be made for controlling building operations in the boroughs specified in the First Schedule hereto:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said section three hundred and ninety, I, Cyril Louis Norton Newall, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby proclaim that on and from the publication of this Proclamation in the Gazette the regulations set out in the Second Schedule hereto shall be in force in the respective boroughs specified in the said First Schedule hereto notwithstanding any by-laws to the contrary hereto in force.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

The Borough of Marton.
The Borough of Feilding.
The Borough of Pohatua.
The Borough of Shannon.
The Borough of Levin.
The Borough of Otaki.

The Borough of Upper Hutt.
The Borough of Petone.
The Borough of Eastbourne.
The Borough of Masterton.
The Borough of Carterton.
The Borough of Greytown.
The Borough of Featherston.
The Borough of Martinborough.
The Borough of Woodville.
The Borough of Pahiatua.
The Borough of Eketahuna.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

1. PERMANENT ERECTIONS.

No person shall erect or re-erect or recondition any building or make any structural alteration or addition to any building heretofore or hereafter erected, or remove any building from one place to another within the borough or from a place outside the borough to any place within the borough, without first obtaining a building permit from the Borough Council concerned.

No person shall cause or permit any building to be so erected, re-erected, reconditioned, altered, or removed if a building permit in that behalf has not first been obtained from the Council.

The Councils and the examining officers thereof will be guided in their decisions by the lessons learned from recent earthquakes and the accepted principles of design and construction to resist earthquake shocks.

The guiding principles in the design and construction of buildings to resist earthquake shocks are set out by the New Zealand Standard Model Building By-law (N.Z.S.S. No. 95—1936) and by the several parts of the New Zealand Standard Code of Building By-laws (N.Z.S.S. No. 96), including in each case the additions, revisions, and amendments from time to time in operation, and must take precedence over existing by-laws of the Council concerned.

2. TEMPORARY ERECTIONS.

Permits may be granted for the erection and maintenance of temporary structures and for the execution of temporary repairs, although they do not comply in respect of materials, design, and construction, with the by-laws from time to time in operation. Such permits shall not be issued for a longer period than the duration of the present war and one year thereafter.

On the expiration of the period of such permits for temporary structures, owners shall be liable, at their own expense, to demolish and remove the temporary structures when required to do so by the local authority concerned.

The period of permits issued for temporary repairs shall be subject to yearly review, and may be terminated at any time if deemed desirable by the local authority concerned.

On the expiration of the period of such permits for temporary repairs, or at an earlier date if deemed desirable by the local authorities concerned, the owners shall be liable, at their own expense, to comply entirely with clause 1 of this Schedule when required to do so by the local authority concerned.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, and issued under the Seal of that Dominion, this 27th day of July, 1942.

W. E. PARRY, Minister of Internal Affairs.

God save the King!

(L.A. 187/1.)
At the Government House at Wellington, this 22nd day of July, 1942.

Present:

His Excellency the Governor-General in Council.

Whereas the land described in the Schedule hereeto is a reserve duly set apart for railway purposes:

And whereas it is expedient that the purpose of the reserve over such land shall be changed to a reserve for railway purposes:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by subsection one (a) of section seven of the Public Reserves, Domains, and National Parks Act, 1928, doth hereby declare that the purpose of the reserve described in the Schedule hereeto is hereby changed from a reserve for quarry purposes to a reserve for railway purposes.

Notice of Meeting of Creditors.

A MEETING of creditors will be held at the office of H. M. Newton, Public Accountant, 105 Chancery Chambers, O’Connell Street, Auckland, on Friday, the 14th August, 1942, at 1.45 p.m.

Business.—To receive the liquidators' account of the winding up.

Dated at Auckland, this 27th day of July, 1942.

C. MASTERS,

171

H. M. NEWTON, Liquidators.
THE following regulations were laid before the members of the Thames Jockey Club at a meeting held on the 24th day of July, 1942, at noon, at Thames, with a recommendation by the Chairman of such club, Mr. William Bongard, that the same be passed at once with a view to their approval by His Excellency the Governor-General in pursuance of the Gaming Act, 1908, section 33. Mr. Bongard, the Chairman of such club, and the meeting moved, and Mr. Augustus Christie seconded, and it was resolved that such regulations should be adopted and that the Chairman and Secretary be authorized to sign the same in authentication thereof.

The following are the regulations referred to:

THAMES JOCKEY CLUB.

Regulations.

(2) In pursuance and exercise of the powers in that behalf contained in section 33 of the Gaming Act, 1908, and of all other powers and authorities it enabling it in that behalf, the Thames Jockey Club, a racing club within the meaning of the said Act (hereinafter referred to as "the said club"), do hereby make the following regulations controlling the admission of persons to that part of the Ohinemuri Jockey Club's property situated in the district of Ohinemuri and known as the Ohinemuri Jockey Club's Racecourse, while the said racecourse is used or occupied by the said club for race meetings.

1. These regulations shall come into force on the date of the same being published in the New Zealand Gazette.

2. In the regulations the words "the bookmaker," "racing club," and "race meeting" shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively by section 2 of the Gaming Act, 1908.

3. The following persons shall be and are hereby excluded from the racecourse above described while the same is used or occupied by the said club for race meetings, namely:

(a) Bookmakers.

(b) Bookmakers' clerks, bookmakers' assistants, and bookmakers' agents.

(c) All persons under disqualification inflicted by any racing or trotting club in the Dominion of New Zealand; the Commonwealth of Australia, or elsewhere if affiliated to the New Zealand Racing Conference, or the New Zealand Trotting Conference, or the New Zealand Trotting Association.

(d) Common prostitutes and persons who habitually consort with thieves or persons who have no lawful visible means of support.

(e) Professional tipsters, persons convicted of house-breaking or pocket-picking, forgery, uttering or possessing counterfeit coin, theft, false pretences, receiving stolen goods, mischief, assault, or any offence or crime of any kind under the Crimes Act, 1908, and also idle and disorderly persons, rogues, and vagabonds, and incorrigible rogues convicted under the Police Offences Act, 1908, and persons convicted of an offence under the Crimes Act, 1908.

Provided always that the Executive Committee appointed by the New Zealand Racing Conference, upon being satisfied by evidence as to character and otherwise that any person who, by reason of any conviction, comes within the scope of this regulation, should have relief from the effect thereof, may grant exception to any such person, and may at any time revoke any such exemption without notice to such person, and without assigning any reason for such revocation.

The foregoing regulations of the Thames Jockey Club are hereby approved this 28th day of July, 1942.
