

The Brushware Control Notice 1942.

PURSUANT to the Factory Emergency Regulations 1939, I, George Augustus Pascoe, Factory Controller, hereby give notice and direct as follows:—

1. This Notice may be cited as the Brushware Control Notice 1942.

2. This Notice shall come into force on the day next following the date of the publication hereof in the Gazette.

3. In this Notice, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Bristle” means any hair (whether or not dressed) irrespective of the source of such hair, or any fibre substitute for hair capable of being used in the manufacture of brushware;

“Brushware” includes all brushes manufactured for commercial and industrial use, and all paint-brushes, hair-brushes, tooth-brushes, shaving-brushes, cleaning-brushes, and brooms.

4. After the coming into force of this Notice no person being the occupier of a factory or the owner of factory materials shall use any bristle or any substitute therefor for any purpose without the prior consent in writing of the Factory Controller.

5. Every owner of raw bristle shall, within seven days after the date of the publication of this Notice in the Gazette, furnish in writing to the Factory Controller particulars of his stocks thereof, stating full details of grades held in stock and the quantities of each grade.

6. Within seven days of the importation of any bristle the importer thereof shall furnish in writing to the Factory Controller particulars of such importation, stating full details of the grades and the quantities of each grade.

Dated at Wellington, this 12th day of August, 1942.

G. A. PASCOE, Factory Controller.

The Cordage and Fibre Control Notice 1942.

PURSUANT to the Factory Emergency Regulations 1939, I, George Augustus Pascoe, Factory Controller, hereby direct and give notice as follows:—

1. This Notice may be cited as the Cordage and Fibre Control Notice 1942.

2. This Notice shall come into force on the day next following the date of publication hereof in the Gazette.

3. In this Notice, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Cordage” means cordage, twine, rope, or cable manufactured from any fibre;

“Fibre” means fibres of any of the plants the usual and botanical names of which are set out in the Schedule hereto.

4. After the coming into force of this Notice no person shall sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any cordage or fibre, whether acquired by him before or after the coming into force of this Notice, except with the precedent consent in writing of the Factory Controller or of some approving officer appointed by the Factory Controller in that behalf:

Provided, however, that this restriction shall not apply to—

(a) The sale, transfer, or other disposal of seaming-twine for the purpose of sewing woolpacks, if the seaming-twine is sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of at the same time as the woolpacks and in quantities not exceeding  $\frac{1}{2}$  lb. hank to twelve woolpacks;

(b) The sale, transfer, or other disposal of binder, bagging, and hay-baling twines for harvest purposes to any farmer or owner of harvesting, threshing, or hay-baling machines, in a quantity not exceeding in any period of three months the quantity sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of to the same person in the corresponding period of three months in the year 1941.

5. Within fourteen days of the date of publication hereof in the Gazette every owner of more than 112 lb. weight of unused cordage or fibre shall furnish in writing delivered to the Factory Controller particulars of his stocks of cordage or fibre stating—

- (a) Description and grades;
- (b) Quantities;
- (c) Address where stored or kept;

Provided, however, that this clause shall not apply to any farmer holding stocks of cordage for his own exclusive use nor to any person holding less than two unused coils of cordage.

6. Within seven days of the importation of any cordage or fibre the importer thereof shall furnish the Factory Controller with details stating—

- (a) Descriptions and grades;
- (b) Quantities.

7. Within seven days after the end of each calendar month every person who has manufactured, milled, or produced any fibre during that month shall furnish the Factory Controller with details thereof stating—

- (a) Description and grades;
- (b) Quantities;
- (c) Particulars of all sales;
- (d) Details of stocks on hand at end of month.

8. All persons heretofore approved by the Secretary of the Ministry of Supply for the purposes of clauses (2) and (3) of the Notice relating to cordage, rope, twine, and thread, given by the Minister of Supply on the 31st day of July, 1940, and published in the Gazette on the same date at page 1777, whose appointments are effective at the date of this Notice shall, without further appointment, be deemed to be approving officers appointed by the Factory Controller for the purpose of clause 4 of this Notice.
