The Shipping Safety (Wellington) Order 1942.

Pursuant to Regulation 4A of the Shipping Safety Emergency Regulations 1939,* the Minister of Defence doth hereby make the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Shipping Safety (Wellington) Order 1942.
2. This Order shall take effect on the day following the date of publication thereof in the Gazette.
3. This Order shall apply with respect to all small craft, as defined in the Shipping Safety Emergency Regulations 1940†, of publication thereof in any part of the waters described in the First Schedule hereto.
4. No master or person in charge of any small craft to which this Order applies shall cause or permit the craft to be anchored in any part of the waters described in the First Schedule hereto, other than that part of those waters included in the examination anchorage for the Port of Wellington, as described in paragraph 22 of the Public Traffic Regulations 1939 for that port, as set out in clause 3 of the Shipping Control (Wellington) Notice 1942.
5. No master or person in charge of any small craft engaged in fishing, being a craft to which this Order applies, shall cause or permit the craft while so engaged to be in any part of the waters described in the First Schedule hereto.
6. Except in accordance with the terms and conditions of a written permit granted by the Naval Control Service Officer at Wellington, no master or person in charge of any small craft to which this Order applies shall cause or permit the craft to be in any part of the waters described in the Second Schedule hereto.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

PROHIBITED ANCHORAGE AND FISHING AREA.

The Shipping Control (Wellington) Notice 1942.

Pursuant to the Shipping Control Emergency Regulations 1939,* the Naval Board hereby gives notification as follows:—

1. This notification may be cited as the Shipping Control (Wellington) Notice 1942.
2. This notification shall take effect on the day following the date of publication thereof in the Gazette.
3. The Public Traffic Regulations 1939† for the Port of Wellington are hereby amended by revoking paragraph 22 and substituting the following paragraph:—

"22. Examination Anchorage, Position, and Limits.—The examination anchorage is situated in Worsen Bay within the following limits: From a position 000° 4·5 cables from Staple Rock Beacon in Lat. 41° 19' 28" S., Long. 174° 06' 45" E., in a 270° direction for 3·5 cables; thence in a 000° direction for 7 cables; thence in a 090° direction for 5·5 cables; thence by a right line in a 270° direction to the above-mentioned position."

4. No master or person in charge of any ship to which the Shipping Control Emergency Regulations 1939 for the time being apply shall cause or permit the ship to be anchored in any part of the waters described in the First Schedule hereto, other than that part of those waters included in the examination anchorage for the Port of Wellington, as described in paragraph 22 of the Public Traffic Regulations 1939 for that port, as set out in clause 3 hereof.

5. No master or person in charge of any small craft engaged in fishing being a ship to which the Shipping Control Emergency Regulations 1939 for the time being apply, shall cause or permit the ship while so engaged to be in any part of the waters described in the First Schedule hereto.

6. (1) Except in accordance with the terms and conditions of a written permit granted by the Naval Control Service Officer at Wellington, no master or person in charge of any small craft within the meaning of the Public Traffic Regulations 1939 for the Port of Wellington, being a craft to which the Shipping Control Emergency Regulations 1939 for the time being apply, shall cause or permit the craft to be in any part of the waters described in the Second Schedule hereto.

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply with respect to any such small craft entering the port and passing through the examination service.

1. The Shipping Control (Wellington) Notice 1942.
2. The Public Traffic Regulations 1939 for the Port of Wellington are hereby consequentially amended by revoking clause (3) of paragraph 29 thereof, as set out in Notice to Mariners No. 21 of 1941, published in the Gazette of the 11th September, 1941, at page 2778.
