- 3. The Medical Supplies Notice 1942, No. 3,* and the Medical Supplies Notice 1942, No. 4†, are respectively amended by deleting the words "2. Quinine and its salts" contained in the respective Schedules to the said notices.
- 4. Nothing in the last preceding paragraph hereof shall affect the liability of any person for any offence in relation to the notices therein mentioned committed before this notice comes into force.
- 5. So long as this notice remains in force no person shall use
- quinine for any other purpose than as an anti-malarial agent.

 6. No person shall deal with quinine in any way which militates or is calculated or likely to militate against its use as an anti-malarial agent.
- 7. No person shall sell, transfer, part with the possession of, or otherwise dispose of quinine, or agree to dispose in any manner of quinine if he has reasonable ground to believe that it will be used otherwise than as an anti-malarial agent.
- 8. No person shall purchase, receive, or otherwise acquire or agree in any manner to acquire quinine except for use as an antimalarial agent.

- 9. No person shall sell or agree to sell, or otherwise dispose or agree to dispose of, quinine by wholesale to any person except to another wholesaler or a registered medical practitioner or a registered pharmaceutical chemist.
- 10. No person shall sell or agree to sell, or otherwise dispose or agree to dispose of, quinine by retail except pursuant to a prescription signed by a registered medical practitioner.
- 11. No medical practitioner shall prescribe quinine except for treatment of malaria.
- 12. This Order shall not apply to any preparation containing quinine in which on the day of the coming into force of this notice quinine has already been combined or compounded with other medicinal agents

Dated at Wellington, this 1st day of September, 1942.
