The Factories Act (M. Albrechtsen, New Plymouth) Labour Legislation Modification Order 1943.

IN pursuance of the Labour Legislation Emergency Regulations 1940, the Minister of Labour doth hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Factories Act (M. Albrechtsen, New Plymouth) Labour Legislation Modification Order 1943.

2. This Order applies to Mr. Albrechtsen, Baker and Pastrycook, New Plymouth, and to one female worker employed by him as a pastrycook.

3. The provisions of the Factories Act, 1921-22, are hereby modified to the extent necessary to enable the worker referred to in clause 2 hereof to be employed in the bakehouse before 8 a.m., but such modification shall be subject to the following conditions, viz.:—

(1) Such worker shall not commence work earlier than 7 a.m.; and

(2) Time worked by such worker between 7 a.m. and 8 a.m. shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half.

4. This Order shall come into effect on the day of the date hereof.

Dated at Wellington, this 9th day of April, 1943.

P. C. WEBB, Minister of Labour.

The Tea-rooms and Restaurants Labour Legislation Modification Order 1943.

IN pursuance of the Labour Legislation Emergency Regulations 1940, the Minister of Labour doth hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Tea-rooms and Restaurants Labour Legislation Modification Order 1943.

2. This Order applies to all employers in the Northern, Taranaki, and Wellington Industrial Districts, and in that part of the Otago and Southland Industrial District known as the Otago Provincial District who are bound by the New Zealand Tea-rooms and Restaurant Employees' award, dated the 30th day of March, 1942, and recorded in 42 Book of Awards 225, and to female workers (other than kitchen staff) over eighteen years of age employed by such employers on work coming within the scope of the said award.

3. The provisions of section 40 of the Shops and Offices Act, 1921-22, and of the said award are hereby modified to the extent necessary to enable the workers referred to in clause 2 hereof to be employed up to 11.30 p.m., but employment pursuant to such modification shall be subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

4. Female workers over eighteen years of age may be employed as part time workers between the hours of 8 p.m. and 11.30 p.m. on not more than five nights a week at a weekly wage of £2 4s. 1d.

5. Female workers over eighteen years of age may be employed as casual workers between the hours of 8 p.m. and 11.30 p.m. at a wage of 10s. 6d. a night.

6. Workers engaged as full time workers under the said award or as part-time workers under clause 12 thereof may also be employed by the same employer as part-time workers or casual workers under this Order, but such employment shall be treated as a separate engagement and a separate entry shall be made in the time and wages book in respect thereof: Provided that no such employee shall be employed under this Order on the day of her weekly whole holiday or on the day of her weekly half-holiday under the said award.

7. Where a worker is employed after 10.30 p.m. she shall be deemed to be employed under this Order, and shall be entitled to the benefit of the wages and other conditions prescribed herein in addition to any wages or other conditions to which she may be entitled apart from this Order.

8. No female worker shall be employed between the hours of 11.30 p.m. and 5 a.m.

9. Workers employed under this Order shall be entitled to an annual holiday or to a proportionate holiday allowance in accordance with clause 5 of the said award.

10. Where uniforms are worn, such uniforms shall be provided by the employer and shall be laundered at the employer's expense, or in lieu of such laundering the employer shall pay the worker an additional 1s. a night.

11. Where the usual means of public transport have ceased for the night or in towns and districts where no such transport facilities are available, the employer shall—

(a) In the case of workers under twenty-one years of age, provide a suitable conveyance to take such workers to their places of residence; and

(b) In the case of workers of twenty-one years of age and over, provide a suitable conveyance to take such workers to their places of residence or pay those workers for whom no such conveyance is provided an additional 2s. 6d. a night each.

12. The provisions of the said award shall apply to workers employed under this Order, except where such provisions are inconsistent with the terms and conditions hereinbefore prescribed.

13. This Order shall come into effect on the day of the date hereof.

Dated at Wellington, this 15th day of April, 1943.

P. C. WEBB, Minister of Labour.

NOTE.—A worker employed as a part-time or casual worker under the terms of this Order is not required to obtain the consent of the Man-power Officer to the termination of such employment.
