The following Warrants relating to the George Cross and the George Medal are hereby published for general information.

W. E. PARBY, Minister of Internal Affairs.

The George Cross Royal Warrant

George the Sixth, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to all to whom these Presents shall come:

Whereas by a Warrant Under Our Sign Manual dated the twenty-fourth of September, one thousand nine hundred and forty, We, having taken into Our Royal consideration the many acts of heroism performed both by male and by female persons during the present war and wishing to honour those who perform such deeds, did institute and create a new Decoration to be styled and designated "The George Cross," which we desired should be highly prized and eagerly sought after;

And whereas We deem it expedient that the seventh clause of Our aforesaid Warrant should be amended:

Now therefore We do hereby declare that the rules and ordinances contained in Our said Warrant shall be abrogated, cancelled and annulled, and in substitution thereof We by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors are graciously pleased to make, ordain and establish the following rules and ordinances for the governance of the same which shall from henceforth be inviolably observed and kept:

First: It is ordained that the Decoration shall be designated and styled "The George Cross."

Secondly: It is ordained that the Decoration shall consist of a plain cross with equal limbs, the cross having in the centre a circular medallion bearing a design showing St. George and the Dragon, and the inscription "For Gallantry" shall appear round this medallion, and in the angle of each limb of the cross the Royal cypher "G. VI." forming a circle concentric with the medallion, that the reverse of the Cross shall be plain and bear the name of the recipient and the date of the award, that the Cross shall be suspended by a ring from a bar adorned with laurel leaves, and that the whole shall be of gold.

Thirdly: It is ordained that the persons eligible for the Decoration of the Cross shall be:

1. Any faithful subjects and persons under Our protection in civil life, male and female, of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, India, Burmas, Our Colonies, and Territories under Our Suraeity, Protection or Jurisdiction;

2. Persons of any rank in the Naval, Military or Air Forces of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, of India, of Burmas, of Our Colonies, and of Territories under Our Suraeity, Protection or Jurisdiction, including the Home Guard and in India members of Frontier Corps and Military Police and members of Indian States' Forces and in Burmas members of the Burma Frontier Force and Military Police, and including also the military nursing Services and the Women's Auxiliary Services;

Our faithful subjects and persons under Our protection in civil life, male and female, within, and members of the Naval, Military or Air Forces belonging to, any other part of Our Dominions, Our Government wherever has signified its desire that the Cross should be awarded under the provisions of this Our Warrant, and any Territory being administered by Us in such part of the World;

The Cross is intended primarily for civilians, and award in Our Dominion is to be confined to actions for which purely military honours are not normally granted.

Fourth: It is ordained that awards shall be made only on a recommendation to Us, for civilians by Our Prime Minister and Members of Our Navals, Military or Air Forces, as described in the previous Clause of this Our Warrant, only on a recommendation by Our First Lord of the Admiralty, Our Secretary of State for War or Our Secretary of State for Air, as the case may be.

Fifthly: It is ordained that the Cross shall be awarded only for acts of the greatest heroism or of the most conspicuous courage in circumstances of extreme danger, and that the Cross may be awarded posthumously.

Department of Internal Affairs, Wellington, 5th May, 1943.

Department of Internal Affairs, Wellington, 27th April, 1943.
Solemnly: It is ordained that every recommendation for the award of the Cross shall be submitted with such description and conclusive proof as the circumstances of the case will allow, and attention be paid by the Minister or Ministers concerned may think requisite.

Seemingly: It is ordained that the Cross shall be worn by recipients on whom it has been conferred, and a half-inch ribbon, and a half-inch width, of dark blue, that it shall be worn immediately after the Victoria Cross, in front of the Insignia of all Orders of Chivalry, and that it be worn on the left shoulder, suspended from a ribbon of the same width and colour, fashioned into a bow.

Eighthly: It is ordained that the award of the George Cross shall entitle the recipient on all occasions when the use of such letters is customary, to have placed after his or her names the letters G.C.

Ninthly: It is ordained that an action which is worthy of recognition by the award of the Cross, but is performed by one upon whom the Decoration has been conferred, may be recorded for Gallantry, which was instituted and created by His late Majesty, and that a Register of such names shall be kept in the Central Chancery of the Orders of Knighthood.

Eleventhly: It is ordained that from the date of this Our Warrant, the grant of the Medal of the Order of the British Empire, for Gallantry, made since the commencement of the Great War, shall be published in the London Gazette, and that a Register of such names shall be kept in the Central Chancery of the Orders of Knighthood.

Thirteenthly: It is ordained that the persons eligible for the Decoration whereof shall desire to submit such a recommendation, by the Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, Our First Lord of the Admiralty, Our Secretary of State for War, or Our Secretary of State for Air, or, in the case of any of Our Dominions, the Government thereof shall so desire, on a recommendation by the appropriate Minister of State for the said Dominion.

Fourthly: It is ordained that awards shall be made only on a recommendation to Us, for civilians by Our Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, Our First Lord of the Admiralty, Our Secretary of State for War or Our Secretary of State for Air, respectively, or, in the case of any of Our Dominions the Government thereof shall so desire, on a recommendation by the appropriate Minister of State for the said Dominion.

Seventhly: It is ordained that it shall be competent for Us, as the case may be, to cancel and annul the award to any person of the George Cross, or of the Medal of the Order of the British Empire, for Gallantry, made since the commencement of the Great War.

Thirteenthly: It is ordained that reproductions of the Cross, known as a Miniature Cross, which may be worn on certain occasions by those to whom the Decoration is awarded shall be half the size of the Cross itself.

Twelfthly: It is ordained that it shall be competent for Us, on the recommendation of any person of the name of such person in the Register of the Orders of Knighthood, to cancel and annul the award of the Cross or of the Medal of the Order of the British Empire, for Gallantry, made since the commencement of the Great War.

It is ordained that every recommendation for the award of the Cross shall be submitted with such description and conclusive proof as the circumstances of the case will allow, and attention be paid by the Minister or Ministers concerned may think requisite.

Whereas by the thirteenth and last clause of Our Warrant for the said Order, power was reserved to Us to annul the award to any person of the George Cross and that thereupon the name of such person in the Register of the Orders of Knighthood, to cancel and annul the award of the Cross or of the Medal of the Order of the British Empire, for Gallantry, made since the commencement of the Great War.

And whereas We deem it expedient to make some alterations in the fourth and fifth classes of Our Warrant for the said Order, to permit of condonism awards and to permit of direct submissions to Us in the case of any of Our Dominions, the Government thereof shall so desire.

And whereas We deem it expedient to make some alterations in the fourth and fifth classes of Our Warrant for the said Order, to permit of condonism awards and to permit of direct submissions to Us in the case of any of Our Dominions, the Government thereof shall so desire.
