Hawke's Bay Special Egg Marketing Notice No. 1

PURSUANT to the Egg Marketing Emergency Regulations 1942 (hereinafter referred to as "the regulations"), the Minister of Marketing hereby declares and directs as follows:—

1. This notice may be cited as the Hawke's Bay Special Egg Marketing Notice No. 1.

2. This notice shall come into force on the 12th day of June, 1943.

3. The Counties of Patangata, Waipukurau, Waipawa, and Hawke's Bay, together with all boroughs and town districts included in that area, are hereby declared to be the Special Egg Marketing Area for the purposes of the regulations.

4. In this notice—

"Authorized distributor" means the Hawke's Bay Co-operative Farm Products, Limited, operating at premises on and having its registered office at 1013 Plunket Street, Hastings.

5. No eggs shall be sold by way of wholesale within the Special Area except by the authorized distributor or its agent acting under the authority of and in accordance with the directions of the Minister.

6. All eggs for sale by way of wholesale within the Special Area shall be delivered to the authorized distributor or its order, and shall be accounted for in such manner, at such prices, subject to such deductions (if any) whether for commission or otherwise, as the Minister from time to time directs, either generally or specially.

7. Except through the agency of the authorized distributor or its agent, no person shall, within the Special Area, purchase or accept any eggs for sale for retail whether in the form in which they are received, or any other form, or as part of any meal or commodity.

Dated at Wellington, this 9th day of June, 1943.

J. G. BARCLAY, Minister of Marketing.
