

(3) Carpenters in the employ of the Wellington Harbour Board who are required to perform work outside the Lambton Harbour—i.e., taking a line drawn from the end of the concrete breastwork at Kaiwarra on the north and the Te Aro Baths on the south as the extreme boundaries—shall be considered to be engaged on suburban work, and workers employed on work outside such limits shall be conveyed at the expense of the Wellington Harbour Board. The present practice of the Wellington Harbour Board to pay ordinary rates for time occupied outside ordinary working-hours in travelling outside the one and a half miles limit shall be continued.

(4) The National Building Committee, established under the provisions of clause 12 of this Order, shall consider and recommend to the Minister of Works for his decision any variation or modification of any of the provisions of this clause to remove any anomalies or to meet any special circumstances that may arise.

10. Where a worker is transferred or engaged to proceed to or directed to employment in a locality necessitating his sleeping elsewhere than at his genuine place of residence the employer shall either supply the worker with suitable board and lodging or shall pay him the sum of 30s. for each week. He shall also convey the worker free of charge or pay his fare to and from the work, but once only during the continuance of such work, and shall pay for the time occupied in such travelling during the ordinary working-hours for such work at ordinary rates of pay, but once only each way.

11. Nothing shall prevent work being carried out by contract on a co-operative basis.

12. (1) There shall be established a National Building Committee, comprising three members as representatives of the workers and three members as representatives of the employers appointed by the Minister of Works, together with a Chairman appointed by the Minister of Works.

(2) There shall also be established for each district as defined by the Minister of Works a local Building Committee, comprising two members as representatives of the workers and two members as representatives of the employers appointed by the Minister of Works, together with a Chairman appointed by the Minister of Works.

(3) The functions of the National Building Committee shall be—

- (i) To promote and maintain harmonious relationship between workers and employers;
- (ii) To endeavour to settle any differences or disputes as to any matter whatsoever in connection with or arising out of this Order or the undertakings affected thereby;
- (iii) To make any suggestions to the Minister of Works for the smoother running or for the more efficient conduct of the operations on the works.
- (iv) To make any suggestions for the elimination of defective work or waste of materials.
- (v) To deal with any other matter that may be referred to the committee by the Minister of Works.

(4) The Local Building Committees may exercise all the functions of the National Building Committee in their respective districts, except that all matters required to be submitted to the Minister of Works shall be referred to the National Building Committee for its consideration and such action as it may think fit.

(5) The decision of a majority of the members (including the Chairman) of the National Building Committee or of any Local Building Committee shall be the decision of such committee.

13. In respect of all other matters the provisions of the relevant award or agreement shall apply, subject, however, to the provisions of any Order made by the Minister of Labour in pursuance of the Labour Legislation Emergency Regulations 1940 that may be applicable to such award or agreement.

14. The Defence Works Labour Legislation Suspension Order 1942* and its amendments are revoked.

15. This Order shall come into effect on the day of the date hereof.

Dated at Wellington, this 16th day of June, 1943.

P. C. WEBB, Minister of Labour.
