Imposing Levy on the Owners of Coal-mines situated within the Waikato Rescue-station Levy Area

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington, this 22nd day of December, 1943

Present:

His Excellency the Governor-General in Council.

WHEREAS by section six, subsection four, of the Coal-mines Amendment Act, 1935, it is provided that every rescue-station established in accordance with section six of the said Act shall be established in respect of an area to be defined by the Minister of Mines by notice published in the "New Zealand Gazette".

And whereas by section six, subsection five, of the said Act, it is provided that, for the purpose of recouping the cost of the establishment and maintenance of such rescue-station, the Governor-General, by Order in Council, may from time to time impose levies on the owners of coal-mines situated within the area defined in respect of such rescue-station not exceeding in respect of any mine for any year a levy computed at the rate of one penny for every ton or part of a ton of marketable coal raised from the mine during the preceding year ended on the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding such mine.

And whereas the Minister of Mines, by notice appearing in the "New Zealand Gazette" of the twenty-second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, defined an area in respect of which a rescue-station might be established:

And whereas the Minister of Mines has established a rescue-station (hereinafter called "the Waikato Rescue-station") in respect of the coal-mining area defined in the said notice:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by the said section six, subsection five, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby, for the purpose of recouping the cost of the establishment and maintenance of the Waikato Rescue-station, impose on the owners of coal-mines situated within the area defined in respect of such rescue-station not exceeding in respect of any mine for any year a levy computed at the rate of three-eighths of a penny for every ton or part of a ton of marketable coal raised from the mine during the year ended on the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding such mine.

And whereas the Minister of Mines, by notice appearing in the "New Zealand Gazette" of the twenty-second day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, defined an area in respect of which a rescue-station might be established:

And whereas the Minister of Mines, by notice appearing in the "New Zealand Gazette" of the twenty-second day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, defined an area in respect of which a rescue-station might be established:

And whereas by section six, subsection five, of the said Act, it is provided that, for the purpose of recouping the cost of the establishment and maintenance of such rescue-station, the Governor-General, by Order in Council, may from time to time impose levies on the owners of coal-mines situated within the area defined in respect of such rescue-station not exceeding in respect of any mine for any year a levy computed at the rate of one penny for every ton or part of a ton of marketable coal raised from the mine during the preceding year ended on the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding such mine.

And whereas the Minister of Mines, by notice appearing in the "New Zealand Gazette" of the twenty-second day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, defined an area in respect of which a rescue-station might be established:

And whereas the Minister of Mines, by notice appearing in the "New Zealand Gazette" of the twenty-second day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, defined an area in respect of which a rescue-station might be established:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by the said section six, subsection five, of the said Act, His Excellency the Governor-General, for the purpose of recouping the cost of the establishment and maintenance of such rescue-station, impose on the owners of coal-mines situated within the area defined in respect of such rescue-station not exceeding in respect of any mine for any year a levy computed at the rate of one penny for every ton or part of a ton of marketable coal raised from the mine during the preceding year ended on the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding such mine.

And whereas the Minister of Mines, by notice appearing in the "New Zealand Gazette" of the twenty-second day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, defined an area in respect of which a rescue-station might be established:

And whereas by section six, subsection five, of the said Act, it is provided that, for the purpose of recouping the cost of the establishment and maintenance of such rescue-station, the Governor-General, by Order in Council, may from time to time impose levies on the owners of coal-mines situated within the area defined in respect of such rescue-station not exceeding in respect of any mine for any year a levy computed at the rate of one penny for every ton or part of a ton of marketable coal raised from the mine during the preceding year ended on the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding such mine.

And whereas the Minister of Mines, by notice appearing in the "New Zealand Gazette" of the twenty-second day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, defined an area in respect of which a rescue-station might be established:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General, for the purpose of recouping the cost of the establishment and maintenance of such rescue-station, impose on the owners of coal-mines situated within the area defined in respect of such rescue-station not exceeding in respect of any mine for any year a levy computed at the rate of one penny for every ton or part of a ton of marketable coal raised from the mine during the preceding year ended on the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding such mine.

C. A. JEFFERY, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Imposing Levy on the Owners of Coal-mines situated within the Grey Rescue-station Levy Area

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington, this 22nd day of December, 1943

Present:

His Excellency the Governor-General in Council.

WHEREAS by section six, subsection four, of the Coal-mines Amendment Act, 1935, it is provided that every rescue-station established in accordance with section six of the said Act shall be established in respect of an area to be defined by the Minister of Mines by notice published in the "New Zealand Gazette".

And whereas by section six, subsection five, of the said Act, it is provided that, for the purpose of recouping the cost of the establishment and maintenance of such rescue-station, the Governor-General, by Order in Council, may from time to time impose levies on the owners of coal-mines situated within the area defined in respect of such rescue-station not exceeding in respect of any mine for any year a levy computed at the rate of one penny for every ton or part of a ton of marketable coal raised from the mine during the preceding year ended on the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding such mine.

And whereas the Minister of Mines, by notice appearing in the "New Zealand Gazette" of the twenty-second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, defined an area in respect of which a rescue-station might be established:

And whereas the Minister of Mines has established a rescue-station (hereinafter called "the Grey Rescue-station") in respect of the coal-mining area defined in the said notice:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by the said section six, subsection five, of the said Act, His Excellency the Governor-General, for the purpose of recouping the cost of the establishment and maintenance of the Grey Rescue-station, impose on the owners of coal-mines situated within the area defined in respect of such rescue-station not exceeding in respect of any mine for any year a levy computed at the rate of one penny for every ton or part of a ton of marketable coal raised from the mine during the preceding year ended on the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding such mine.

And whereas the Minister of Mines, by notice appearing in the "New Zealand Gazette" of the twenty-second day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, defined an area in respect of which a rescue-station might be established:

And whereas by section six, subsection five, of the said Act, it is provided that, for the purpose of recouping the cost of the establishment and maintenance of such rescue-station, the Governor-General, by Order in Council, may from time to time impose levies on the owners of coal-mines situated within the area defined in respect of such rescue-station not exceeding in respect of any mine for any year a levy computed at the rate of one penny for every ton or part of a ton of marketable coal raised from the mine during the preceding year ended on the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding such mine.

And whereas the Minister of Mines, by notice appearing in the "New Zealand Gazette" of the twentieth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, defined an area in respect of which a rescue-station might be established:

And whereas by section six, subsection five, of the said Act, it is provided that, for the purpose of recouping the cost of the establishment and maintenance of such rescue-station, the Governor-General, by Order in Council, may from time to time impose levies on the owners of coal-mines situated within the area defined in respect of such rescue-station not exceeding in respect of any mine for any year a levy computed at the rate of one penny for every ton or part of a ton of marketable coal raised from the mine during the preceding year ended on the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding such mine.

Consenting to the Raising of Loans by certain Local Authorities and prescribing the Conditions therefor

C. L. N. NEWALL,
Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington, this 22nd day of December, 1943

Présent:

His Excellency the Governor-General in Council

WHEREAS the several local authorities enumerated in the Schedule hereto, being desirous of raising the respective loans stated opposite their names therein, have respectively complied with the provisions of the Local Government Loans Board Act, 1926 (hereinafter called "the said Act"), and it is expedient that the precedent consent of the Governor-General in Council, as required by the said Act, should be given to the raising of the said loans:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by section eighteen of the said Act, as set out in section twenty-nine of the Finance Act, 1932 (No. 2), and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, doth hereby consent to the raising in New Zealand by the respective local authorities mentioned in the first column of the said Schedule of the respective loans set out in the second column of the said Schedule, up to the respective amounts specified in the third column of the said Schedule, and to giving such consent doth hereby determine as follows:

(1) The terms for which the said loans or any parts thereof may be raised shall be the respective terms (in years) stated in the fourth column of the said Schedule.

(2) The rates of interest that may be paid in respect of the said loans or any parts thereof shall not in the aggregate exceed one-half per centum of any amount raised.

(3) The said respective loans or any parts thereof, together with interest thereon, shall be repaid by equal aggregate annual or half-yearly instalments extending over the respective terms as determined in (1) above.

(4) The payment of such instalments shall be made in New Zealand, and no such instalment shall be paid out of loan-moneys.

(5) The rate payable for brokerage, underwriting, and procuration fees in respect of the raising of the said respective loans or any parts thereof shall not in the aggregate exceed one-half per centum per annum stated in the fifth column of the said Schedule.

(6) No moneys shall be borrowed under this consent after the expiration of two years from the date hereof.

The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1939.—Partial Cancellation of Registration of Industrial Union and Partial Cancellation of Award

WHEREAS in respect of discontinuances of employment by members of the Auckland Road Transport and Motor and Horse Drivers' and their Assistants' Industrial Union of Workers, the Minister of Labour is satisfied that such discontinuances have caused or are likely to cause serious loss or inconvenience and that they have been brought about wholly or partly by such members:

Now, therefore, the Minister of Labour hereby gives notice that in exercise of the powers in that behalf conferred by sections 2 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1939, he does hereby cancel, in respect of that locality which comprises the area lying within a radius of twenty-five miles from the Chief Post Office in the City of Auckland, the registration of the Auckland Road Transport and Motor and Horse Drivers' and their Assistants' Industrial Union of Workers, registered No. 246, as from the date of the publication of this notice in the Gazette.

Dated at Wellington, this 10th day of January, 1944.

P. C. WEBB, Minister of Labour.

NOTE.—In pursuance of subsection (4) of section 2 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1939, all awards of the Court are hereby amended as far as they relate to the Auckland Road Transport and Motor and Horse Drivers' and their Assistants' Industrial Union of Workers so far as they are deemed to be cancelled in respect of the area lying within a radius of twenty-five miles from the Chief Post Office in the City of Auckland following on the above cancellation of registration.

The Hastings Fruit and Vegetable Canning Employees' Labour Legislation Suspension Order, 1943

In pursuance of the Labour Legislation Emergency Regulations 1940, the Minister of Labour doth hereby order follows:

1. This Order may be cited as the Hastings Fruit and Vegetable Canning Employees' Labour Legislation Suspension Order 1943.

2. This Order applies to female workers employed by J. Wattie Canneries Ltd., Hastings, on work varying within the scope of the Wellington Industrial Districts Grocers Sundries (Canning) Employees' award dated 19th day of December, 1939, and recorded in 39 Book of Awards 1939.

3. The provisions of all Acts and all regulations and Orders thereunder and of all awards and industrial agreements under the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925, and of all other voluntary agreements affecting conditions of employment, are hereby suspended in so far as they operate to prevent the employment of the workers referred to in clause 2 hereof on the basis of three shifts in every twenty-four hours or on any Saturday or Sunday or on overtime work for not more than eight hours per day, but such suspension shall be subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

4. When shifts are being worked each worker shall receive in addition to the wages prescribed by the award hereinafore mentioned the sum of 3s. per shift for each shift worked.

5. Workers employed on Saturdays or Sundays shall be paid remuneration at the rate of time and a half.

6. This Order shall operate from the 1st day of December in each year until the 30th day of April in the following year, and shall be deemed to have come into effect on 31st December, 1943.

Dated at Wellington, this 11th day of January, 1944.

P. C. WEBB, Minister of Labour.

Exemption Order under the Transport Legislation Emergency Regulations 1940

Pursuant to the Transport Legislation Emergency Regulations 1940, the Minister of Transport doth hereby order and declare that the provisions of clause (1) of Regulation 7 of the Motor-drivers Regulations 1940, so far as they relate to drivers of heavy trade-motors, shall not apply to Elive Thoms I' Greens.

Dated at Wellington, this 10th day of January, 1944.

JAS. O'BRIEN, Minister of Transport.
