Exempting Crown Land from the Provisions of the Mining Act, 1926

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General

WHEREAS by section twenty of the Mining Act, 1926, it is inter alia, enacted that the Governor-General may from time to time, by notice in the Gazette, exempt any Crown lands from mining or from any specified mining purpose, or from that Act or any specified provisions of that Act, and that the lands to which any such notice relates shall be specified therein by words of particular description:

And whereas it is desirable that the Crown land specified in the Schedule hereto should be exempted from the provisions of the Mining Act, 1926, and its amendments:

Now, therefore, I, Cyril Louis Norton Newall, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on me by section twenty of the Mining Act, 1926, and of all other powers and authorities in anywise enabling me in that behalf, do hereby exempt the land particularly described in the Schedule hereto from the provisions of the Mining Act, 1926, and do also hereby declare that such exemption shall take effect from the date of the publication of this notice in the Gazette.

SCHEDULE

Commission of Inquiry into Apprenticeship and Related Matters

To all to whom these presents shall come, and to His Honour Mr. Arthur Tyndall, of Wellington, Judge of the Court of Arbitration, Clarence Edward Beeby, of Wellington, Director of Education, Frederick Daniel Cornwell, of Wellington, Secretary, Charles Roderick Edmond, of Wellington, Secretary, Francis George Fowler, of Auckland, Engineer, Alfred Gilbert, of Auckland, Engineer, Henry Ernest Moston, of Wellington, Secretary of Labour, William Joseph Mountjoy, of Wellington, Secretary, Frederick Charles Renyard, of Wellington, Superintendent of Technical Education, Randolph Gordon Ridling, of Wellington, Technical College Principal, Roy Stanley, of Auckland, Secretary, and Edward Bellamy Taylor, of Wellington, Registrar of Apprentices: GREETING.

WHEREAS it is expedient that inquiry be made into the working of the apprenticeship laws and the desirability of reorganizing facilities for training in manual trades and into the other matters hereinafter referred to:

Now, therefore, I, Cyril Louis Norton Newall, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1908, and all other powers and authorities enabling me in this behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, do hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint you, the said

Arthur Tyndall,
Clarence Edward Beeby,
Frederick Daniel Cornwell,
Charles Roderick Edmond,
Francis George Fowler,
Alfred Gilbert,
Henry Ernest Moston,
William Joseph Mountjoy,
Frederick Charles Renyard,
Randolph Gordon Ridling,
Roy Stanley, and
Edward Bellamy Taylor

to be a Commission to inquire into and report and make recommendations upon the following matters, namely:—

1. To investigate existing educational facilities of both pre-vocational and vocational character, and to report on the changes necessary to meet the present and future needs of industry so far as they can be foreseen.

2. To examine existing legislation bearing upon apprenticeship; to make recommendations as to changes in such legislation, or as to new legislation which might be necessary to enable the reforms recommended by the Commission to be carried into effect:

And generally such other matters arising out of the premises as may come to your notice in the course of your inquiries and which you consider should be investigated in connection therewith and be brought to the attention of the Government:

And in exercise of such powers and authorities as aforesaid, and with the like advice and consent, I do hereby appoint you, the said Arthur Tyndall, to be the Chairman of the said Commission:

And you are hereby authorized to conduct any inquiry under these presents at such times and places as you deem expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and place to place as you think fit, and so that these presents shall continue in force and the inquiry may at any time and place be resumed although not regularly adjourned from time to time or from place to place, and to call before you and examine on oath or otherwise such persons as you think capable of affording you information as to the matters aforesaid, and to call for and examine all such books, papers, writings, documents, and records as you deem likely to afford you the fullest information on any such matters:

And, using all due diligence, you are required to report to me, under your hands and seals, not later than the thirty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four, your findings and opinions on the aforesaid matters:

And you are hereby strictly charged and directed that you shall not at any time publish or otherwise disclose, save to me in pursuance of these presents or by my direction, the contents or purport of any report so made or to be made by you, or any evidence or information obtained by you in the exercise of the powers hereby conferred upon you except such evidence or information as is received in the course of a sitting open to the public:

And it is hereby declared that the powers hereby conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the absence at any time of any one or more of the members of the Commission hereby appointed, so long as the Chairman and at least four other members be present and concur in the exercise of such powers.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Marshal of the Royal Air Force Cyril Louis Norton Newall, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Member of the Order of Merit, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, on whom has been conferred the Albert Medal of the First Class, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over His Majesty's Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and issued under the Seal of the said Dominion, this 19th day of April, 1944.

P. C. WEBB, Minister of Labour.

Approved in Council—

C. A. JEFFERY,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
