The Licensed Hotels Labour Legislation Modification Order 1944

WHEREAS it appears to me to be necessary for securing the public safety, the defence of New Zealand, the efficient prosecution of any war in which His Majesty may be engaged, and for maintaining supplies and services essential to the life of the community, I, Patrick Charles Webb, Minister of Labour, pursuant to the Labour Legislation Emergency Regulations 1940, do hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Licensed Hotels Labour Legislation Modification Order 1944.

2. This Order shall apply to all persons bound by the New Zealand Licensed Hotel Employees' award dated 5th day of August, 1940, Book of Awards, Vol. 40, page 1249.

3. The award is hereby modified by deleting paragraph (g) of clause 7 and by adding after clause 7 the following clause:—

“7A. Part-time barmen may be employed in establishments wherein one or more full-time barmen are employed on the following conditions:—

- “(i) A part-time barman shall not be employed on more than five days a week;
- “(ii) The employment in each day shall be continuous;
- “(iii) Part-time barmen shall not be employed in any establishment in a greater proportion than one part-time barman to each two full-time barmen employed, provided that one part-time barman may be employed where only one full-time barman is employed;
- “(iv) Payment shall be 12s. per day for service not exceeding two hours a day;
- “(v) Where more than two hours are worked in any one day the payment for that day shall be twelve shillings, increased by 2s. 6d. for each period of half an hour or part thereof in excess of two hours:

- “(vi) For the purpose of payment for annual holidays or other payments, pursuant to clause 5 of the award, the full pay of the part-time barman shall be deemed to be his average weekly wages in respect of the employment for the period covered by the payment, but shall not include payment for board and lodgings;
- “(vii) The employer shall not be bound to provide meals or board or lodgings for any part-time barman;
- “(viii) The employer engaging a part-time barman shall within three days give to the secretary of the union for the district written notice specifying the name and address of the part-time barman;
- “(ix) Each part-time barman if not already a member of the union shall forthwith join the union on being employed;
- “(x) The employer shall, where the part-time barman consents, deduct from his wages each week a sum equivalent to the weekly union fees and pay such moneys on behalf of the worker to the secretary of the union;
- “(xi) No worker who is engaged as a part-time barman pursuant to this clause shall at the same time be employed by the same employer in any other capacity;
- “(xii) Service under this clause shall be treated as a separate employment for the purposes of clause 5 of the award;
- “(xiii) For the purposes of this clause ‘full-time barman’ means a worker employed as a barman on a weekly engagement otherwise than pursuant to this clause, but does not include a porter-barman;
- “(xiv) The rates of wages specified herein shall not be affected by any orders made pursuant to the Rates of Wages Emergency Regulations 1940 prior to the day of the date hereof.”

4. This order shall come into effect on the day of the date hereof.

Dated at Wellington, this 26th day of May, 1944.

P. C. WEBB, Minister of Labour.
