The Sharebrokers Act, 1892.—Rules of the Invercargill Stock Exchange, Limited

Head Office, Stamp Duties Office, Wellington, 15th June, 1944.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General in Council has been pleased to approve of the following rules of the Invercargill Stock Exchange, Limited.

H. G. B. MASON,
For the Minister of Stamp Duties.

PRELIMINARY

1. The marginal notes hereto shall not affect the construction hereof, in these premises, unless there be something in the subject-matter or context inconsistent therewith,—

"The Exchange" means the Invercargill Stock Exchange;

"In writing" and "written" include printing, lithography, and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form:

"Month" means any calendar month:

"The Exchange" means the Invercargill Stock Exchange, Limited;

"months" means a period of three consecutive months;

"principal" includes"general; and" the singular number includes the plural number, and vice versa;

"Words importing the singular number only include the feminine gender; and Words importing persons include corporations.

CONSTITUTION

2. The Invercargill Stock Exchange (hereinafter called "the Exchange") shall consist of members holding a share broker's license, and engaged in the purchase and sale of shares, debentures, mines, and mining interests. No member shall be entitled to hold a share in any other exchange in the city or suburbs of Invercargill engaged in the same business.

OBJECTS

3. The objects and purposes of the Exchange are to provide, regulate, and maintain a suitable building, room, or rooms in Invercargill for the promotion and facilitation of dealing in stocks and shares; to establish just and equitable principles in the transaction of business; to adjust controversies between the members; and to maintain uniformity in its rules and usage. Its funds are to be applied only for the purposes and objects herein set forth.

MEMBERS

4. The number of members shall be limited to fifteen, exclusive of country members.

COUNTRY MEMBERS

5. Any licensed broker carrying on business at a distance of not less than twenty miles from the rooms or buildings where this Exchange is for the time being transacting its business may be elected a country member by this Exchange; provided that this Exchange is the nearest metropolitan Exchange to his place of business. A country member shall be elected annually, and shall pay a fee of £5 5s. per annum, or a larger sum, if fixed from time to time by the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand, such subscription to be payable in advance. The privileges of country members shall be such as the Committee, consisting of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Secretary, for the time being shall from time to time determine.

6. The management of the Exchange shall be vested in a Committee, consisting of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Secretary, and such Committee shall have (subject to these rules) the direction and control of the affairs of the Exchange, and they shall forthwith provide a common seal for the Exchange, and they shall have power from time to time to destroy the same and substitute a new seal in lieu thereof, and they may make regulations for the use and safe custody of the common seal.

7. Provided always that every instrument to which the seal shall be affixed shall be signed by at least two members of the Committee and countersigned by the Secretary or some person appointed by the Committee.

8. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and other members of the Committee shall be elected at the annual general meeting by a majority of the members of the Exchange present and voting. Each such election shall be by ballot, and the persons elected shall take office immediately after the close of the annual general meeting at which they are elected. At each annual general meeting the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and all other members of the Committee shall retire and be deemed to have vacated office, but each of them shall be eligible for re-election to the office to which he has vacated. Any member desiring to be or become a candidate and office must be proposed by one member and seconded by another member. The appointment of the members and officers for the ensuing year, and also generally to conduct any business provided for in these rules.

9. The quorum for meetings of the Committee shall be four.

10. A member of the Committee shall not take part in any of its meetings pending the investigation of a charge affecting himself.

11. The surviving or continuing members of the Committee, notwithstanding any vacancy in their number, may act until the vacancy be filled up.

12. The decision of the Committee in all cases submitting any such subject or matter shall be final in all cases submitted to it.

13. A country member shall not be entitled to vote or hold office or have any voice in the control, management, or business of the Exchange or in any proceedings relating to any of its meetings pending the investigation of a charge affecting himself.

14. The Committee may from time to time appoint a Secretary, who shall hold office during their pleasure and at such remuneration as they may from time to time fix.

15. In the event of the resignation or removal from office of the Secretary, or in the case of his suspension, the Chairman shall carry out his duties, or may appoint another member to do so.

TREASURER

16. The Secretary shall keep the accounts and act as Treasurer, and shall have the custody of all books and papers. He shall present at each annual general meeting a statement of the finances of the Exchange to the end of the previous year, duly audited by a member appointed by the members for that purpose.

CHAIRMAN

17. The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the Exchange and of the Committee, but in the event of both being absent the members present shall elect a Chairman for that occasion.

18. The decision of the Committee, at any meeting shall be final in all cases submitted to it.

19. In all cases at any meeting when, on a division, the votes are equal, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

20. In the event of any member or members obstructing the business of a meeting, or being guilty of any breach of etiquette, of which the Chairman shall be the judge, the Chairman shall have power to inflict such fine, not exceeding £2, as he may deem advisable.

OFFICIAL VACANCY

21. Any occasional vacancy in the Committee, or in the position of Chairman or Vice-Chairman, shall be filled at a special general meeting of members to be summoned by the Committee for that purpose without unnecessary delay.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS AND SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

22. The financial year of the Exchange shall close on the 30th day of June. A general meeting of members shall be held annually in the month of July, at which the business of the Exchange shall be transacted. A general meeting shall be to receive from the Treasurer a balance-sheet showing the financial position of the Exchange, to elect a Committee and officers for the ensuing year, and also generally to conduct any business provided for in these rules.

23. At any annual general meeting, after all business herein provided for shall have been disposed of, it shall be competent for any member to bring under the notice of the meeting any business or matter within the object or purposes of the Exchange, provided that notice of any proposition to be considered at a future meeting.

24. A special general meeting may be called by the Committee.

25. A special general meeting shall be called by the Committee upon the receipt of a requisition addressed to the Secretary requesting them to do so, signed by at least three members, and stating the business for which such meeting is required; and if the same shall not be convened within seven days from the time of such requisition being so left, or, within one month if the object of such meeting is the alteration, amendment, or repeal of these rules, or any of them, the requisitionists or any three members may themselves convene a meeting by giving the required notice an official meeting.

26. A special general meeting can only be held after at least twenty-four hours' notice has been given by announcement at an official meeting, specifying the day and hour of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be considered:

Provided that this rule shall not apply to meetings called for the purpose of altering, amending, or repealing these rules or any of them.

27. No other business shall be transacted at a special general meeting except that stated in the notice convening the meeting, and no resolution shall be passed, on the business transacted, which is not included within the objects and purposes for which the meeting is convened.

No amendment shall be allowed upon any resolution contained in the notice convening any meeting not directly pertinent thereto.

28. A general meeting shall be adjourned to a future day or to another place if the meeting is on account of non-payment of any subscription or call shall remain unpaid for the space of one month from the date on which it is due, the seat shall be rendered liable to forfeiture at the discretion of the Committee.

Provided; that any candidate for admission by virtue of application for admission, or his name shall be submitted to the Committee and be subject to the same annual subscription as that of existing members during that period.

29. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting so adjourned.

30. Every member shall have one vote, and all questions shall be decided by a majority of those present and voting, except in cases otherwise provided for in these rules.

Voting by proxy shall not be permitted.

Provided; that in all special general meetings shall not be less than four. If there is not a quorum present at any meeting, either of the Exchange or the Executive Committee, the business of the meeting shall be adjourned to a future day.

The results of all elections of members made at any meeting, either of the Exchange or the Executive Committee, within a period of fifteen days of their appointment, the same shall lapse. The lapse of a meeting shall in no way prejudice or affect the right to call another meeting for the same purpose.

Funds

32. The Committee shall have full control over the funds of the Exchange, and shall pay therefrom all current expenses and all sums due to the Committee from members, and all sums due and payable under the terms of any sale or purchase of a membership, or of any other sum as the Exchange may from time to time determine, shall be paid by candidates for membership at the time of application for admission. In the event of a candidate being rejected, his entrance fee shall be returned to him:

Provided that any candidate for admission by virtue of application for admission, such candidate shall have remained unpaid for fourteen days from the date on which such subscription or call is due; and, further, if such subscription or call remains unpaid at the end of one month from the date on which it is due, the seat shall be rendered liable to forfeiture at the discretion of the Committee of the Exchange, shall be allowed upon any resolution contained in the notice convening any meeting not directly pertinent thereto.

33. The Committee shall invest the funds under their absolute discretion think advisable, and shall have power to sell and vary investments.

34. Cheques drawn on or against any funds of the Exchange shall bear the signature of the Secretary or Acting Secretary, and of one member of the Committee.

Entrance Fee

35. An entrance fee of thirty guineas for the period ending 30th June, 19 —, and thereafter each year, or of such other sum as the Exchange may from time to time determine, shall be paid by candidates for membership at the time of application for admission. In the event of a candidate being rejected, his entrance fee shall be returned to him:

Provided that any candidate for admission by virtue of application for admission, such candidate shall have remained unpaid for fourteen days from the date on which such subscription or call is due; and, further, if such subscription or call remains unpaid at the end of one month from the date on which it is due, the seat shall be rendered liable to forfeiture at the discretion of the Committee of the Exchange, shall be allowed upon any resolution contained in the notice convening any meeting not directly pertinent thereto.

36. The annual subscription shall be £10 10s. (payable in two instalments on the 1st of July and the 1st of January of each year), and the Executive Committee shall have power to make such other calls as may be necessary to meet current expenses or other payments due and payable under the terms of sale or purchase of a membership, or of any other sum as the Exchange may from time to time determine, shall be paid by candidates for membership at the time of application for admission. In the event of a candidate being rejected, his entrance fee shall be returned to him:

Provided that any candidate for admission by virtue of application for admission, such candidate shall have remained unpaid for fourteen days from the date on which such subscription or call is due; and, further, if such subscription or call remains unpaid at the end of one month from the date on which it is due, the seat shall be rendered liable to forfeiture at the discretion of the Committee of the Exchange, shall be allowed upon any resolution contained in the notice convening any meeting not directly pertinent thereto.

37. The membership of a resigning member, from the date of resignation until the election of his nominee, shall be subject to the same annual subscription as that of existing members during that period.

38. A membership purchased by the Committee shall not be liable for the annual subscription whilst held by them.

Election of Members

39. Every candidate for admission to membership must be proposed by a member and seconded by another member, and his name shall be submitted to the Committee and announced at an official meeting, and posted in the room of the Exchange at least seven days before the day of election. The ballot shall be taken at the first call of shares on the day after such seven days have expired. Application for admission to membership, except as otherwise provided, shall be in the following form:

Invercargill, ........ , 19 —,

To the Secretary of the Invercargill Stock Exchange.

Sir,—

I am desirous of being admitted a member of the Invercargill Stock Exchange, upon the terms of and under and subject in all respects to its rules and regulations which now are or hereafter may be for the time being in force.

I have read the rules as at this date, and am willing to sign a requisition called upon to do so. Enclosed I beg to hand you cheque for £ ......... , being the entrance fee required.

I am, &c.,

that purpose. It shall be competent for the said special general meeting to order the Committee to provide and expel the member so brought before them or deal with him by fine or suspension from membership. A member who becomes indebted to the Exchange for the purchase of his estate and compounds with, his creditor shall forfeit his membership and all interest in the funds and property of the Exchange, and, notwithstanding any other rule of the Exchange, he may not return to the Exchange and thereafter be a defaulter on the Exchange; but such member may be reinstated without payment of fine after he has obtained his discharge by the chairman buying or selling in the market, on account of the member in default, and surrendered the said member proceeds accordingly to the Committee. The Committee shall charge current rate of brokerage to the defaulter, and such brokerage shall be the property of the Chairman. Members shall, without delay, render full statements of accounts to the Committee.

59. Should it come to the knowledge of any member of the Exchange that a broker, either in Invercargill or elsewhere, has failed to meet his engagements, the said engagements must at once report the circumstances to the Chairman, who shall bring the matter before the Exchange, at its first meeting, for decision as to what action shall be taken. Any member, for the purpose of collecting any monies due to the Exchange, shall have power to sell and transfer all open transactions, including time bargains, between any member or members and any other member or members, either in Invercargill or elsewhere, and shall have power to give effect to any sale and transfer on the above-mentioned principle. Any member or members who are indebted to the Exchange, or are creditors of any member, shall have no claim on the assets of the latter member; in the second place, in payment of the balance, if any, shall be disposed of as provided by Rule 52.

DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS OF EX-MEMBERS

63. The Committee in dividing amongst members, creditors of a late member, the proceeds received by them on sale of shares, shall have power to divide any surpluses received by them on the closing of transactions open in the hands of the Committee from the estate of another member in default. All surpluses in the hands of members resulting from the closing of transactions in the hands of members in default shall be paid to the Committee.

64. Claims on the estate of a resigning, retiring, or deceased member that do not arise from transactions under these rules shall not be recognized by the Committee until all claims that have arisen from transactions under the rules shall have been satisfied.

PARTNERS OR CLEERKS

65. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman may grant a member permission for a nominee to attend the official meetings for the purpose of making quotations, and the purchase and sale of shares, on behalf of such member, but for no other purpose. Such authorized nominee shall be subject to the rules and usages of the Exchange, and the Committee reserves to itself the right to open or close transactions of the said nominee at any meeting or any voice in the management of the Exchange. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman may withdraw the permission from the nominee at any time. The Committee shall have power to order that all outstanding transactions of the said nominee shall be closed within a time to be named by the Committee. Such transactions shall be closed accordingly by the Chairman or by any other member authorized by the Committee to close the said transactions. The Committee shall charge current rate of brokerage to the defaulter, and such brokerage shall be the property of the Committee. Members shall, without delay, render full statements of accounts to the Committee.

COMMISSION

70. The rates of brokerage shall be those fixed or adopted from time to time by the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand.
No rates other than those mentioned shall be charged.

87. When sales are effected the selling member must deliver the documents within ten days from 12 o'clock on the day of sale, except in the case of Tasmanian and Australian stocks, when 1 o'clock on the following Monday shall be the time for delivery. When the special time for delivery is stated at the time of sale. If the documents are not delivered in accordance with this rule, the buyer may sell the shares at the market price prevailing at the time of delivery without notice to the seller, unless a written agreement to the contrary shall have been returned within a reasonable time, and the buyer shall be bound thereby.

88. Purchasers shall not be required to take delivery of and pay for documents until the day following the sale. All documents must be delivered before 11 o'clock on Wednesdays or Saturdays. At 1 o'clock on the following Monday, and no documents shall be delivered for the payment of sales effectuated and reported at the meetings of the Exchange, and a sale may be reported only on the day on which the sale is made.

89. No document may be transferred from the name of any company or association from the official list, nor may any transfer or scrip be delivered to another broker.

90. If delivery of documents has not been made within the time provided in Rule 87, and the buyer has not cancelled the sale or sold at the market price prevailing at the time of delivery without notice to the seller, the buyer shall tender delivery of documents at the expiration of six weeks from the date of sale, but the buyer shall not be bound or compelled to accept delivery of such documents unless some special agreement in writing has been previously made between the buyer and the seller in respect of such delivery.

91. When the buyer shall claim delivery of documents after the expiration of six weeks from the date of sale, and the seller shall not have cancelled the sale or sold at the market price prevailing at the time of delivery without notice to the seller, the buyer shall tender delivery of documents at the expiration of seven clear days after the time of sale. The selling broker shall be responsible for a period of seven clear days from date of delivery for the payment of sales effectuated and reported at the meetings of the Exchange, and for the shares being free from all liability due or payable at the time of sale.

92. Sellers shall deliver separate transfers and scrip representing any one sale of a transferable security. Any transfer of a transferable security must be accepted by the seller as required to do so. Buyers requiring scrip must have the company to register a transfer shall not invalidate a sale.

93. Sellers shall deliver separate transfers and scrip representing any one sale of a transferable security. Any transfer of a transferable security must be accepted by the seller as required to do so. Buyers requiring scrip must have the company to register a transfer shall not invalidate a sale.

94. Any transfer or scrip delivered to another broker shall be liable for a period of seven clear days from date of delivery for the payment of sales effectuated and reported at the meetings of the Exchange, and for the shares being free from all liability due or payable at the time of sale.

95. A member shall not be bound to accept delivery of a transfer signed or transferred or deliveries of any transfer or scrip delivered with scrip attached, or a memorandum of investment shares. Failing the buyer complying with such demand within the time specified by the agreement in writing that the transfer shall be delivered, the transfer shall be responsible for a period of seven clear days from the date of sale.

96. Buyers shall have the option of refusing all transfers or scrip signed under power of attorney or per procuration, unless the signature thereto be certified as correct by the Secretary of the company, or the documents be accompanied by a valid power of attorney.

97. No member shall print or affix his name stamp on any transfer or scrip delivered to another broker.

98. In all cases of delivery of transferable securities and the delivery of documents, whether to another broker or to the Secretary, the following conditions: The member may at any time and from time to time when the market price of the shares or scrip is less than the amount for the time being owing under the contract, by application or notice to the other in writing, require that the contract be kept to the market price by payment to the Secretary of the Exchange, and at the same time the difference between the contract price and the market price. Notification of such application or notice shall be forthwith lodged with the Secretary of such application or notice served on Wednesday or Exchange holidays, or after 1 o'clock in the afternoon of any day, no such application or notice shall be served as aforesaid, the person to whom such application may have been, or upon whom such application shall have been served, shall, before 2.30 p.m. on the same day, pay the Secretary of the Exchange a sum equal to the difference between the contract price and the market price at the time of such application or service and the amount then owing under the contract; such payments to be made in cash or marked cheque if so demanded. The amount so paid shall be held by the Secretary upon and subject to the following trusts and conditions, viz:—

1. If the amount has been paid by the seller, and before the date fixed for completion of the contract the price of the shares or stock falls to the contract price, then such amount shall be paid to the seller if demanded:

2. If the amount has been paid by the buyer, and before the date fixed for completion the market price of the shares or stock rises to the contract price, then such amount shall be repaid to the buyer if demanded:

3. The said amount shall in any case be repaid to the party paying the same at the written request of the other party;

4. The said amount shall be repaid to the party paying the same if the Secretary, or with such other person as he may appoint, is satisfied that the contract has been completed;

5. If the party who has paid such amount shall fail to complete the contract, then the said amount shall be applied in the first place in paying to the other party the amount which the defaulting party is liable to pay to him as hereinafter provided; and the balance (if any) shall be applied, firstly, in paying the brokerage payable to the Chairman by the contract party, and secondly, towards the payment of any fine or fines inflicted upon the defaulter.

Provided always that the seller may, in lieu of paying the Secretary of the Exchange the difference between the market price and the amount owing under the contract, deliver to the Secretary of the Exchange, or with such other person as he may appoint, the difference between the market price and the amount owing under the contract, the seller may in either or any such case forthwith, at his option, either cancel the contract or buy at the risk of the seller through the Chairman, and the seller shall be entitled to call upon the buyer to complete transfer to enable him to secure such new shares himself, the buyer, if desirous of receiving his proportion of the new shares, to be accompanied by the necessary funds, to secure them, and the seller, on receipt of such request, shall secure them, but the seller may elect to deliver such documents as will enable the buyer to secure the new shares.

105. In the event of new shares being created and offered to the shareholders in any company during the currency of a time bargain, the buyer failing to pay the price of such shares within the time fixed for completion of the contract, the buyer to complete transfer to enable him to secure such new shares himself, the buyer, if desirous of receiving his proportion of the new shares, to be accompanied by the necessary funds, to secure them, and the seller, on receipt of such request, shall secure them, but the seller may elect to deliver such documents as will enable the buyer to secure the new shares.

106. Whenever the said transaction is in shares on a London register, the responsibility of the seller shall cease if he shall have taken every practicable course to secure the new shares; and, further, in such case the seller shall be relieved of the responsibility if the circumstances place him in no better position than the buyer to secure the new shares, in which case the seller may, upon receipt of the said amount from the Secretary of the Exchange, or such other person as he shall appoint, notify the buyer in writing of such circumstances, and the buyer on receipt of such notification shall protect his own interests.

111. A member shall not buy or sell shares for any one employed in another member’s office.

DISPUTES

112. In disputes between members with reference to stock and share transactions, the Committee shall determine, in the case to which the Committee shall attend any meeting of the Committee to adjudicate upon any complaint submitted, their decision shall be final and binding, and shall be carried out forthwith by the member to whom the complaint shall have been presented as a defaulter. The Committee shall inquire into the facts, and shall decide whether such defaulter shall be held to have defaultered or not. If the facts be such as to support the said person and announce to the members that he is in default.

113. It shall not be incumbent upon the Committee to entertain any complaint submitted to them by any one not a member of the Exchange against a member of it, unless such complaint shall have been previously presented to the Committee in writing.

114. Members and their clerks when required so to do by the Committee shall attend any meeting of the Committee, and then and there shall give such information as may be in their possession relative to any matter under investigation.

POWER OF COMMITTEE TO PROCURE INFORMATION RELATIVE TO MATTERS UNDER INVESTIGATION

115. The President of the Exchange shall, in the event of a complaint being made, which in their opinion justifies such procedure, to call upon any member to produce for their inspection all books, letters, telegrams, or copies thereof, and other documents in his possession relating thereto, and he shall, without delay, produce them for inspection accordingly.
VIOLATION OF RULES AND PENALTIES

116. The Committee shall take cognizance of all violations of these rules, whether in letter or spirit. Any member found by them to be guilty of such violation, or who may fail, to observe or be bound by any decision or ruling of the Exchange, or of the Committee, or who in the opinion of the Committee is or has been guilty of conduct unworthy of a member, shall be liable to be suspended or expelled, or fine and suspended from membership by resolution of the Committee; or should the matter be of such moment as in their opinion demands retaliation, the Committee shall report accordingly to the members of a special general meeting to confirm the Committee's recommendations and expel the offending member, or deal with him by fine or suspension.

117. The fines mentioned herein shall not, in cases where another amount is fixed, be less than £5 or more than £25, and in case of a continuous offence shall be not less than £1 or more than £5 for each day during which such offence continues.

NOTICES

118. Except as by these rules otherwise provided, any notice or document to be given or served upon any member shall be deemed to have been duly given or served if given by advertisement or by personal service upon the member, or by sending it through the post as a prepaid registered letter addressed to such member at his last known address in the Register, or to such other address as he shall from time to time notify in writing to the Secretary, or to his last known business address.

119. Any member of the Exchange who shall fail to observe or be bound by any terms of any decision or ruling of the Committee or of the Exchange, or the spirit or intention thereof, relative to the conduct by the members of the Exchange, shall be deemed guilty of conduct unworthy of a member, and be dealt with in manner provided by Rule 116.

120. If a fine imposed on any member at a special general meeting of members be unpaid at the end of one clear week, the member in default shall forfeit his membership, and the Committee shall announce to the members that he has been suspended, or has ceased to be a member.

121. A member, or his nominee, shall not vote at any meeting of the Committee or of the Exchange, or the spirit or intention thereof, relative to the conduct by the members of the Exchange, or of the Exchange, shall be deemed guilty of conduct unworthy of a member, and be dealt with in manner provided by Rule 116.

122. The Committee for the time being may, in their discretion, whether in letter or spirit. Any member found by them to be guilty of such violation, or who may fail, to observe or be bound by any decision or ruling of the Exchange, or of the Committee, or who in the opinion of the Committee is or has been guilty of conduct unworthy of a member, shall be liable to be suspended or expelled, or fine and suspended from membership by resolution of the Committee; or should the matter be of such moment as in their opinion demands retaliation, the Committee shall report accordingly to the members of a special general meeting to confirm the Committee's recommendations and expel the offending member, or deal with him by fine or suspension.

ALTERATION, AMENDMENT, OR REPEAL OF RULES

123. In all dealings with members of other exchanges affiliated with the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand the rules of that association shall apply and prevail over the rules of the Exchange.

124. The Exchange shall have power to alter, amend, or repeal any of these rules.

NOTICE

125. Notice shall be given in writing, addressed to the Secretary, of any proposed amendment, or repeal of, or addition to the rules. A special general meeting shall be called to consider any proposed alteration, amendment, or repeal, and at least seven days' notice of such meeting shall be given to the members by circular, sent to the last known business address of each member. The circular shall contain a copy of the proposed alteration, amendment, or repeal, but the accidental omission to give any such notice to any member shall not invalidate any proceedings taken or any resolution passed at such meeting.

126. Any member of the Exchange who shall fail to observe or be bound by any terms of any decision or ruling of the Exchange, or of the Committee, or who in the opinion of the Committee is or has been guilty of conduct unworthy of a member, shall be deemed guilty of conduct unworthy of a member, and be dealt with in manner provided by Rule 116.

127. Notice shall be given in writing, addressed to the Secretary, of any proposed amendment, or repeal of, or addition to the rules. A special general meeting shall be called to consider any proposed alteration, amendment, or repeal, and at least seven days' notice of such meeting shall be given to the members by circular, sent to the last known business address of each member. The circular shall contain a copy of the proposed alteration, amendment, or repeal, but the accidental omission to give any such notice to any member shall not invalidate any proceedings taken or any resolution passed at such meeting.

DISTRIBUTION

128. The property of the Exchange in the event of its winding-up shall be determined by a special general meeting of the members of the Exchange.

Rule substituted for Rule 125 above on the 8th day of June, 1943
