Promotions

For the following additional temporary appointments and award in recognition of gallantry and devotion to duty in operations against the enemy—:

To be a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order, Wing Commander Charles Warren Kelvin Nicholls (RAF 342/24), of England.

On the 9th February, 1944, Wing Commander Nicholls was appointed Officer Commanding, Royal New Zealand Air Force Fighter Wing, and Officer in Charge, Fighter Operations, Tokoriki. During the Japanese shelling of the Bonganiwite bridgehead between 8th March and 15th April, Wing Commanders Nicholls earned unstinted praise from the United States Commanders for his masterly handling of the many squadrons, both Royal New Zealand Air Force and American, based on his airfield. Although constantly subjected to enemy fires, he always operated for his complete disregard for his own personal safety. Wing Commander Nicholls set a fine example which was a constant source of inspiration to the squadrons under his command, and by his efforts, he organized, trained, and led a fighter-bomber wing of exceptionally high standard.
Distinguished Flying Cross
Flying Officer Albert Hart Robertson, Zillwood (NZ 4310159), Royal New Zealand Air Force, of Auckland.

This officer was the navigator of an aircraft detailed to attack a target at Nantes. Shortly after making the attack, the aircraft sustained damage. The pilot was seriously injured and was unable to execute his duties. Despite his lack of experience the air bomber took over the controls, and with the assistance of Flying Officer Zillwood succeeded in flying the damaged aircraft to base. These members of the aircraft crew displayed exceptional coolness, great determination, and devotion to duty in most difficult circumstances. They have completed very many sorties against heavily defended targets in Germany.

His Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry and devotion to duty in operations against the enemy:

To be a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order

Bar to Distinguished Flying Cross

Flying Officer Francis Emile Hogg, D.F.C. (NZ 391383), Royal New Zealand Air Force, of Masterton.

Distinguished Flying Cross
Acting Flight Lieutenant Eric Francis Witting (NZ 415212), Royal New Zealand Air Force, of Invercargill.

Flying Officer James Gibson Gow (NZ 405053), Royal New Zealand Air Force, of Auckland.

Flying Officer Albert Hart Robertson, Zillwood (NZ 4310159), Royal New Zealand Air Force, of Auckland.

His Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to give orders to the effect on and from 1st July, 1944.

Note: At stations where departure from normal are in parentheses the record has been maintained for less than 10 years in the case of temperatures and for less than 20 years in the case of rainfall and the normals are partly interpolated.
NOTES ON THE WEATHER FOR JULY, 1944

General.—Apart from its dullness July was not an unfavourable winter month. Rain, on the whole, was not excessive, and mild spells compensated for the cold ones. Stock continue to fare very well and are in good condition. The new season is promising well for the main dairy districts.

Rainfall.—Moderate surpluses occurred in the Targo - Bay of Plenty region, over most of Taranaki, and locally near Wellington City. Nelson, Westland, and the Southern Alps received totals considerably above average. Elsewhere totals were deficient and most noticeably so near Whangarei, in central Hawke's Bay, and between Kaikoura and Christchurch; but only in isolated cases did the values fall below half the average.

Temperature.—With few exceptions, mean temperatures were above average, the largest departures occurring east of the North Island and in Central Otago. Frosts have been sharp and widespread at times, but there have been also several cloudy and comparatively mild nights. There was less snow than usual, and at several localities it was received in a form of hail, and some blizzards occurred over the South Island.

Sunshine.—The total duration for the month was better than usual for the eastern and northern portions of the Auckland Province, but elsewhere it was deficient. It was a record dull July for Christchurch, but Wellington, Nelson, and Westport also had totals below their respective averages by more than twenty-four hours.

Weather Sequence.—A trough passed on the 1st bringing a change to southerlies, with wintry showers and some snow in eastern districts.
