

15. The owner of all cargo or goods landed on the wharf shall place same in charge of the wharfinger, who shall place them in the shed or otherwise as he may think advisable. All goods may remain in the shed for a period of forty-eight hours, but may, with the wharfinger's permission, remain in the shed for such further period as the wharfinger may permit, at the consignee's or owner's risk, but the giving of such permission shall not throw upon the Council any liability for damage or deterioration from any cause whatever.

16. The Council shall not be responsible for loss or damage to goods while in its custody by fire, water used in extinguishing fire, vermin, earthquake, the action of the sea, theft, robbery, or other like cause, except when due to the negligence of the Council or its officers or servants.

17. All wool put into the shed shall be stowed by the owner or his agent in such manner as directed by the wharfinger or his deputy.

18. The owner of all goods of a dangerous or inflammable nature landed on the wharf shall not put such goods into the shed, and such goods shall remain at the owner's risk while lying on the wharf; and the owner of any such goods shall be held responsible for any accident, damage, or loss that may result from such goods being on the wharf.

19. All complaints about the working of the wharf or shed, or against the wharfinger or his representative, shall be made in writing to the Council.

20. No person shall smoke in the shed.

21. No person shall commit a nuisance on, under, or about the wharf or any of the Council's premises.

22. No person shall scribble upon, cut, scratch, paint, or otherwise deface the wharf, shed, or other property of the Council.

23. No person shall place any placard, notice, or advertisement on any portion of the wharf or shed without the permission of the wharfinger.

24. No person shall play or tamper with any crane, truck, machinery or plant, nor make any use thereof except when entitled to do so under these regulations.

25. No person owning or being in charge of any dog shall permit it to enter or remain on the wharf, unless such dog is either engaged in shipping stock or is led by a strap or chain, or is otherwise under the immediate control of the person accompanying such dog.

26. No person has any absolute right to be on the wharf or in the shed unless he has legitimate business to warrant his presence thereon. Any person refusing, when asked by the wharfinger, to state the nature of his business shall be guilty of an offence.

27. Any person having no legitimate business on the wharf or in the shed must leave the same if requested to do so by the wharfinger.

28. No child of tender years shall be allowed on the wharf unless accompanied by an adult.

29. All boatmen, stevedores, carters, or others engaged on the wharf shall be under the control of and shall obey the orders of the wharfinger; and any person disobeying such orders, or in any way obstructing the traffic on the wharf, or making use of abusive or improper language thereon, or on board of any vessel or launch alongside thereof, shall be liable to a penalty.

30. No person shall disobey the lawful orders of the wharfinger or in any way obstruct the traffic on the wharf or in the shed, or commit any act resulting or likely to result in a breach of the peace on the wharf or in the shed.

31. If any person fails or refuses or neglects to do anything required by these regulations, or in any manner obstructs, impedes, or interferes with the doing of anything enjoined or authorized to be done, or wilfully does anything prohibited by these by-laws, every such person in any case so offending shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.
