The Bank of New Zealand Emergency Regulations 1944

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington, this 13th day of December, 1944

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

WHEREAS a casual vacancy in the office of director elected by the proprietors of the Bank of New Zealand was occasioned by the death of the late Arthur Emerson Mabin on the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four:

And whereas, in pursuance of section twenty-six of The Bank of New Zealand Act, 1926, notice of such casual vacancy was published in the Gazette on the twenty-ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four:

And whereas certain notices of candidature for the office of director to be elected by the proprietors to fill such vacancy were given to the Board of Directors of the Bank within the period prescribed by the said section twenty-six:

And whereas the Returning Officer forwarded voting-papers to the proprietors on the ninth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four, in pursuance of the provisions of the Deed of Settlement of the said Bank:

And whereas the voting-papers for proprietors on the London Register did not reach England until the eighth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four:

B

And whereas, in pursuance of the provisions of the said section twenty-six, the voting-papers must be returned to the Head Office of the Bank not later than the twenty-sixth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four, and the result of the voting must be reported by the Returning Officer to the Chairman of the Board not later than the fifteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five:

And whereas, by reason of delays in transmission by post arising out of the war in which His Majesty is now engaged, it is unlikely that such voting-papers can be returned to the Head Office of the Bank before the twenty-sixth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four:

And whereas it is expedient to make special provision in the premises:

And whereas the objects of the following regulations are not attainable otherwise than by legislation whether by statute or by such regulations:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the Emergency Regulations Act, 1939, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. THESE regulations may be cited as the Bank of New Zealand Emergency Regulations 1944.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 26 of The Bank of New Zealand Act, 1926, or in the Deed of Settlement of the said Bank, it shall be sufficient—

- If the voting-papers of proprietors on the London Register of the said Bank, which by the said section 26 must reach the Head Office of the Bank not later than the 26th day of December, 1944, shall reach the Head Office of the Bank not later than the 29th day of January, 1945;
- If the result of the voting by proprietors, whether on the London Register or any other share register of the Bank, shall be reported by the Returning Officer to the Chairman of the Board not later than the 18th day of February, 1945.

C. A. JEFFERY, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Lands temporarily reserved in the Wellington, Westland, and Canterbury Land Districts

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General

WHEREAS by the three-hundred-and-fifty-ninth section of the Land Act, 1924, it is enacted that the Governor-General may from time to time set apart temporarily as reserves, notwithstanding that the same may be then held under pastoral license, any Crown lands which in his opinion are required for any of the purposes in the said section mentioned:

And whereas by the seventy-first section of the Land for Settlements Act, 1925, it is further provided that the Governor-General may from time to time, as he thinks fit, set aside reserves for any specified public purpose out of lands acquired under the last-mentioned Act, provided that no land so acquired shall be set aside for endowments:

Now, therefore, I, Cyril Louis Norton Newall, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by the said Acts, do hereby temporarily reserve the lands in the Wellington, Westland, and Canterbury Land Districts, described in the Schedule hereunder written, for the purposes specified at the end of the respective descriptions of the lands so intended to be temporarily reserved.
