PRIVATE BILL

In Parliament.

In the matter of a Private Bill intituled "The Church of England Trusts Amendment Bill, 1945."

NOTICE is hereby given that it is intended to apply to Parliament at its next ensuing session for leave to bring in a Private Bill intituled "The Church of England Trusts Amendment Bill, 1945."

The objects of the Bill are as follows:—

1. To add to the Schedule of the Church of England Trusts Act, 1913 (which defines the powers conferred by that Act upon the trustees of the "granted hereditaments" and of the lands and hereditaments held on the trusts of the grants referred to in The Bishops in New Zealand Trusts Act, 1871, and by Diocesan Boards of Trustees), the following power, namely:—

"Power, where not expressly forbidden by the trust, to lend any part of the funds of the trustees on first mortgage of any leasehold granted by them, in any case where the following conditions are complied with, namely—

"(a) That the tenancy is for a term not exceeding twenty-one years, with a right of renewal for the same or any shorter term, either in perpetuity or for a period ending not earlier than forty years from the date of the loan, at a rent to be determined by valuation in accordance with the provisions of the First Schedule to the Public Bodies' Leases Act, 1908:

"(b) That the money so lent shall be used in erecting buildings or other permanent improvements on the land so leased:

"(c) That the amount to be lent on the security of each such leasehold and permitted by the terms of the mortgage to remain owing at any time during the currency of the mortgage thereof shall not exceed two-thirds of the value of the lessee's interest in the said land and such buildings and improvements as aforesaid:

"(d) That the amount so lent shall be wholly repayable within seven years, or by the date on which the current lease expires, whichever period is the shorter: Provided that the trustees may agree to accept repayment by periodical payments of principal and interest extending over the remaining period of the current lease or any part thereof."

2. To restrict that powers of sale and exchange referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of the said Schedule by excepting from them the cases in which the trustees are mortgagees of a leasehold under the foregoing paragraph 1.

Printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bills Office at Wellington not earlier than thirty days before and not later than fourteen days after the commencement of the next ensuing session of Parliament.

The promoters of the Bill are Cecil Turnley Cox, of Wellington, Public Accountant, Herbert Edgar Evans, of Wellington, Solicitor, and A. Marsden Woods, of Whangarei, Solicitor, being a committee set up by the General Synod of the Church of the Province of New Zealand, commonly called the Church of England, to promote the said Bill on its behalf.

Dated this 13th day of March, 1945.

BELL, GULLY, MACKENZIE, AND EVANS,

104, Featherston Street, Wellington,

Solicitors for the Promoters.
