PRIVATE BILL

In Parliament.

In the matter of a Private Bill intituled "The Church of England Trusts Amendment Bill, 1945."

NOTICE is hereby given that it is intended to apply to Parliament at its next ensuing session for leave to bring in a Private Bill intituled "The Church of England Trusts Amendment Bill, 1945."

The objects of the Bill are as follows:—

1. To add to the Schedule of the Church of England Trusts Act, 1913 (which defines the powers conferred by that Act upon the trustees of the "granted hereditaments" and of the lands and hereditaments held on the trusts of the grants referred to in The Bishops in New Zealand Trusts Act, 1871, and by Diocesan Boards of Trustees), the following power, namely:—

"Power, where not expressly forbidden by the trust, to lend any part of the funds of the trustees on first mortgage of any leasehold granted by them, in any case where the following conditions are complied with, namely—

"(a) That the tenancy is for a term not exceeding twenty-one years, with a right of renewal for the same or any shorter term, either in perpetuity or for a period ending not earlier than forty years from the date of the loan, at a rent to be determined by valuation in accordance with the provisions of the First Schedule to the Public Bodies' Leases Act, 1908:

- "(b) That the money so lent shall be used in erecting buildings or other permanent improvements on the land so leased:
- "(c) That the amount to be lent on the security of each such leasehold and permitted by the terms of the mortgage to remain owing at any time during the currency of the mortgage thereof shall not exceed two-thirds of the value of the lessee's interest in the said land and such buildings and improvements as aforesaid:
- "(d) That the amount so lent shall be wholly repayable within seven years, or by the date on which the current lease expires, whichever period is the shorter: Provided that the trustees may agree to accept repayment by periodical payments of principal and interest extending over the remaining period of the current lease or any part thereof."

2. To restrict that powers of sale and exchange referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of the said Schedule by excepting from them the cases in which the trustees are mortgagees of a leasehold under the foregoing paragraph 1.

Printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bills Office at Wellington not earlier than thirty days before and not later than fourteen days after the commencement of the next ensuing session of Parliament.

The promoters of the Bill are Cecil Turnley Cox, of Wellington, Public Accountant, Herbert Edgar Evans, of Wellington, Solicitor, and A. Marsden Woods, of Whangarei, Solicitor, being a committee set up by the General Synod of the Church of the Province of New Zealand, commonly called the Church of England, to promote the said Bill on its behalf.

Dated this 13th day of March, 1945.

PRIVATE BILL

In the matter of the Standing Orders of the General Assembly of New Zealand relative to Private Bills and in the matter of a Private Bill intituled "An Act to amend The Christ's College (Canterbury) Act, 1910, and to extend the Powers of the said Christ's College (Canterbury) so as to enable it to amalgamate Investments and Trust Funds now or hereafter held by or vested in the said College."

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to the provisions of the Standing Orders of the Parliament of New Zealand relating to Private Bills, that application will be made to the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled at its next ensuing session on behalf of Christ's College (Canterbury), a body politic and corporate constituted under an Ordinance of the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Canterbury intituled "Christ's College Ordinance, Session IV, No. 4," whose office is situated in the school-grounds of Christ's College, situated on Rolleston Avenue in Christchurch, for leave to introduce a Bill to be intituled "An Act to amend The Christ's College (Canterbury) Act, 1910, and to extend the powers of the said Christ's College (Canterbury) so as to enable it to amalgamate Investments and Trust Funds now or hereafter held by or vested in the said College."

The objects of the Bill are:—

Firstly, to amend The Christ's College (Canterbury) Act, 1910, by the addition of a new section to empower the said Christ's College (Canterbury) (hereinafter called "the College") to amalgamate in one fund for investment purposes all the funds, securities, and lands which now are or may at any time hereafter be vested in the College in trust for or for the benefit of the College and whether held for the general purposes of the College or for the foundation or maintenance of any scholarships, professorships, exhibitions, bursaries, or prizes, or otherwise for the benefit of or in connection with the College (but without otherwise in any way modifying or altering the trusts upon which the said funds, investments, and lands are held), and prescribing the terms and conditions upon and subject to which such funds, investments, and lands may be amalgamated. The Bill excludes from the proposed amalgamation:—

- (a) The lands used for the purpose of the College and any lands which may hereafter be acquired for the same purposes:
- (b) Any funds, investments, or lands hereafter given, devised, or bequeathed by any donor or testator upon terms which forbid inclusion in such amalgamated fund:
- (c) Any funds, investments, or lands which may hereafter be given, devised, or bequeathed to the College which the governing body of the College do not wish to include in the amalgamated fund:
- (d) Income accrued and uncollected at date of amalgamation, i.e., 31st day of January, 1945.

Secondly, to provide for payment of the costs and expenses of promotion of the Bill.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office in Wellington not earlier than thirty days before and not later than fourteen days after the commencement of the next ensuing session of Parliament.

Dated this 14th day of March, 1945.
