

FIXING MAXIMUM PRICE OF OATS TO WHICH THIS ORDER APPLIES

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding subclause, the maximum price that may be charged or received by the grower for any oats to which this Order applies shall be 3s. 8d. per bushel f.o.r.s.e. the grower's station.

(2) Where any oats to which this Order applies are delivered by the grower otherwise than f.o.r.s.e. the grower's station, the maximum price that may be charged or received by the grower shall be the price determined in accordance with the last preceding subclause, increased by the amount of the charges (if any) incurred by the grower in effecting delivery and then reduced by the amount of the charges that would have been incurred by him if he had delivered the oats f.o.r.s.e. the grower's station.

6. (1) Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding subclause, the maximum price that may be charged or received by any vendor (other than the grower) for any oats to which this Order applies shall be 3s. 9½d. per bushel f.o.r.s.e. the grower's station.

(2) For oats sold to any person other than a miller the maximum price shall be 3s. 8d. per bushel f.o.r.s.e. the grower's station, increased as follows:—

(a) By a proportionate part of any expenses incurred by the same or any other vendor in respect of transport or storage or in respect of the dressing or other treatment of the oats; and also

(b) By an amount not exceeding the amount by which, in accordance with trade practice, the price per bushel charged by a vendor of the same class (exclusive of charges in respect of transport or storage or in respect of dressing or other treatment as aforesaid), customarily exceeds the price per bushel paid to the grower.

(3) Where any oats to which this Order applies are delivered by a vendor (other than a grower) otherwise than f.o.r.s.e. the grower's station, the maximum price that may be charged or received by the vendor shall be the price determined in accordance with subclause (1) or subclause (2) of this clause (as the case may be), increased by the amount of the charges (if any) incurred by the vendor in effecting delivery, and then reduced by the amount of the charges that would have been incurred by him if he had delivered the oats f.o.r.s.e. the grower's station.

Price Order No. 359 (Spirits)

PURSUANT to the powers conferred on it by the Control of Prices Emergency Regulations 1939,* the Price Tribunal, acting with the authority of the Minister of Industries and Commerce, doth hereby make the following Price Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as Price Order No. 359, and shall come into force on the 30th day of April, 1945.

2. In this Order—

“Public bar,” “private bar,” “publican's license,” and “licensed premises” have the same meanings respectively as in the Licensing Act, 1908:

“Spirits” means whisky, rum, or gin:

“Standard measure” means a measure containing the 1/42nd part of a reputed quart.

APPLICATION OF THIS ORDER

3. This Order applies only with respect to the sale by the holder of a publican's license of drinks consisting of or containing whisky, rum, or gin, when sold over the counter of a public bar or private bar for consumption on licensed premises.

FIXING MAXIMUM PRICE OF DRINKS TO WHICH THIS ORDER APPLIES

4. (1) Except as provided in subclause (2) hereof, the maximum price that may be charged by the licensee of any licensed premises for any drink to which this Order applies shall be:—

(a) When the quantity of spirits contained in the drink is less than a full standard measure, the maximum price of the drink shall be 6d.:

(b) When the quantity of spirits contained in the drink is a full standard measure, the maximum price of the drink shall be 10d.:

(c) When the quantity of spirits contained in the drink is equal to two or more full standard measures, the maximum price of the drink shall be 10d. multiplied by the number of full standard measures:

(d) When the quantity of spirits contained in the drink exceeds a full standard measure but is not an exact number of standard measures, the maximum price of the drink shall be 10d. for each full standard measure.

(2) When any drink to which this Order applies consists partly of spirits and partly of one or more flavouring or diluting ingredients, no additional charge shall be made in respect of such flavouring or diluting ingredients unless the quantity thereof exceeds two parts to one part of spirits. In any other case, the licensee may charge for the drink at the appropriate rate prescribed by the last preceding subclause, and may make a separate charge, computed at the ordinary selling-price, for any additional flavouring or diluting ingredients required by the customer to be added to the drink after the proportion of two parts of flavouring or diluting ingredients to one part of spirits has been provided for.

Dated at Wellington, this 26th day of April, 1945.

The Seal of the Price Tribunal was affixed hereto in the presence of—
