Placing Portions of the Mangarehu and Mangakirikiri Streams under the Control of Thames Borough Council

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General

WHEREAS by section sixty-two of the Health Act, 1920, it is provided that the Governor-General may, if he thinks fit, in the interests of public health, by notice in the Gazette, place any specified watercourse, stream, lake, or other source of water-supply, or any specified portion thereof, under the control of any local authority for the purpose of preventing the pollution thereof, notwithstanding that it may not be within the district of that local authority, or on land belonging to that local authority:

Now, therefore, I, Cyril Louis Norton Newall, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred on me by section sixty-two of the Health Act, 1920, do by this notice place all those portions of the Mangarehu Stream and its tributaries, from the sources of that stream and its tributaries, to the intake of the Thames Borough Council water-supply, and all those portions of the Mangakirikiri Stream and its tributaries, from the sources of that stream and its tributaries to the intake of the Thames Borough Council water-supply, under the control of the Thames Borough Council for the purpose of preventing the pollution thereof.

At witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 9th day of July, 1945.

A. H. NORDMEYER, Minister of Health.
