(ii) Officers promoted on the above date and before ten years from entry are, nevertheless, to receive increments under the old scheme for warrant officers and commissioned officers from warrant rank irrespective of the date of promotion to the latter rank.

(iii) Officers serving on 21st February, 1933, if not promoted after ten years from entry are, nevertheless, to receive increments under the old scheme for warrant officers and commissioned officers from warrant rank.

(iv) Officers serving on 21st February, 1933, and after ten years from entry, and officers entered into the Naval Service on or after 21st February, 1933, are to be paid under the new scheme, the rates for which are those shown above.

NOTE.—The "old scheme" referred to in paragraphs (i) to (iv) above is that described in King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, Appendix I Part 1, Nos. 62 and 63. If any officers loaned to the Royal New Zealand Navy are affected thereby, special application should be made to Navy Office for the rate of pay to be applied.
