Defining Extended River Limits for Deep-sea Sports Fishing out of Leigh Cove

IN pursuance of the power and authority conferred upon me by section 189 of the Shipping and Seamen Act, 1908, I, James O'Brien, Minister of Marine, do hereby define the Leigh Cove extended river limits within which extended river limit vessels may ply for the purpose of deep-sea sports fishing to be within a ten-mile radius of the eastern entrance point of Leigh Cove.

As witness my hand at Wellington, this 15th day of April, 1946.

JAS. O'BRIEN, Minister of Marine.

The Servicemen's Settlement and Land Sales Act, 1943.—Notice declaring Land taken for the Settlement of a Discharged Serviceman

WHEREAS an application has been made for the consent of the Land Sales Court to a transaction which relates to the land described in the Schedule hereto and to which Part III of the Servicemen's Settlement and Land Sales Act, 1943, applies:

And whereas the Land Sales Committee to which the application has been referred is of opinion that the land to which the application relates is farm land suitable for the settlement of a discharged serviceman:

And whereas the said committee, not being satisfied that the Crown had decided not to acquire or arrange for the acquisition of the land, did on the 20th day of March, 1946, make an order determining the basic value of the land and no appeal from the said order was made within the time prescribed by the said Act or within any further time allowed by the Court:

And whereas the said land is not the land of any serviceman who is for the time being serving outside New Zealand in any of His Majesty's Forces or in any British ship:

Now, therefore, the Minister of Lands, acting in pursuance of section 51 of the said Act, doth hereby declare that the said land is taken for the settlement of a discharged serviceman, and hereby specifies the 14th day of May, 1946, as the date on which the said land shall be deemed to be vested in His Majesty the King.
