The Poultry Mash Control Notice 1946

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by the Supply Control Emergency Regulations 1939 and the Wheat and Flour Emergency Regulations 1939, the Wheat and Flour Controller hereby directs and gives notice as follows :—

1. This notice may be cited as the Poultry Mash Control Notice 1946.
 2. This notice shall come into force on the day next following notification in the Gazette of the making thereof.

3. In this notice, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Director-General” means the Director-General of the Department of Agriculture as delegate of the Wheat and Flour Controller for the purposes of this notice, and includes the Assistant Director-General of the Department of Agriculture.

4. No person shall use any pollard, bran, or wheat-meal for the manufacture of a food or mash suitable for poultry except under and in accordance with a license granted by the Director-General for the purposes of this notice.

5. (1) Any person may be granted a license by the Director-General to use pollard, bran, and wheat-meal for the manufacture of a food or mash suitable for poultry.

(2) Every license shall be subject to such conditions as may be fixed by the Director-General.

(3) No holder of a license who acquires bran, pollard, wheat-meal, or wheat for the purpose of using it in the manufacture of a food or mash for poultry pursuant to the license shall use, sell, supply, or dispose of the bran, pollard, wheat-meal, or wheat, or the manufactured food or mash, otherwise than in accordance with the conditions of the license or in accordance with any special directions of the Director-General.

Dated at Christchurch, this 13th day of August, 1946.

ROBERT McPHERSON,
 Wheat and Flour Controller.
