Rules of the Royal Society of New Zealand amended

IT is hereby notified that at a meeting of the Council of the Royal Society of New Zealand held on the 22nd May, 1946, the following additions were made to the Rules of the Royal Society of New Zealand, published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 84 of the 14th November, 1935:—

- "B. 12. (a) The President and Vice-President shall be elected annually by ballot at the annual meeting of the society from nominations as provided hereinafter. If there be no valid nominations then the election shall be made by resolution of the Council.
- "(b) The Secretary of the Royal Society shall, before the 15th February in each year, notify the secretaries of member bodies of the rule calling for nominations for the offices of President and Vice-President.
- "(c) The Council of each member body may nominate one member of the Royal Society for each of the offices of President and Vice-President. Such nominations must be accepted in writing by the nominee, and the nominations must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Royal Society not later than the last day of March in each year.
- "(d) The Secretary shall, within three weeks of the last day of receiving nominations, send a list of nominees to each member body showing for each name the office or offices for which he has been nominated and the name of the nominating member body.
- "(e) Any member of the Royal Society may be nominated for both offices in the same year. No President or Vice-President shall remain in office for more than two years successively."

M. WOOD, Secretary.
