

- (c) Where the total quantity of milk supplied at any one time is a lot of two pints or more, the price of all milk so supplied during the period (exclusive of milk so supplied on any one day of a total quantity of one gallon or more) shall be computed on the total quantity of milk supplied during the period at a rate not exceeding the appropriate rate fixed in the Schedule hereto for two pints:
- (d) Where the total quantity of milk supplied to any one purchaser in any one day (exclusive of milk supplied at any one time in a lot of a half-pint or less) is not less than one gallon, the maximum price that may be charged shall be computed on the total quantity of milk so supplied to the purchaser during that day at the appropriate rate fixed in the Schedule hereto.
- (4) Where any milk or cream to which this Order applies is sold otherwise than in one of the quantities specified in the Schedule hereto, or otherwise than in a multiple of any specified quantity, the price shall be computed as follows:—
 - (a) Where the quantity supplied is less than the smallest specified quantity, the price shall be a proportionate part of the price of the smallest specified quantity:
 - (b) Where the quantity supplied exceeds a specified quantity but is less than twice the specified quantity, the price of any surplus over that specified quantity shall be a proportionate part of the price of that specified quantity:
 - (c) Where the quantity supplied exceeds twice the amount of the nearest lower specified quantity but is not an exact multiple of that specified quantity, the price of any surplus over the nearest multiple of the specified quantity shall be a proportionate part of that specified quantity.
 - (5) If in respect of any milk or cream the price charged in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this clause is not an exact number of pence or half-pence, the maximum price shall be computed to the nearest upward halfpenny.

* Statutory Regulations 1942, Serial number 1942/336, page 830.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The foregoing notice does not operate as a prohibition of the sale of any goods, but is only a preliminary declaration specifying the several classes of goods with respect to which the Tribunal has authority to prohibit sales under the powers conferred on it by subclause (2) of clause 9 of the regulations cited in the notice. It is not the intention of the Tribunal to exercise its powers of prohibition (except in the event of special circumstances) for at least two weeks after the publication of the above notice in the Gazette. With respect to goods of the kinds specified in the Schedule to the notice, the Tribunal advises that application for its approval of proposed prices should be made to the Tribunal as soon as possible, and draws attention of all persons concerned to the fact that, at any time after the expiration of two weeks from the publication of the notice, it may proceed, in accordance with the powers conferred on it by the regulations, to prohibit the sale of any such goods otherwise than at the prices fixed or approved by the Tribunal.
