Royal Commission to Inquire into and Report upon Matters concerning the Fire at the Premises of Messrs. J. Ballantyne and Company, Limited, City of Christchurch, on the 18th day of November, 1947

GEORGE THE SIXTH by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith:

To our Trusty and Well-beloved the Honourable Sir Harold Featherston Johnston, King's Counsel, of Wellington, a past Judge of the Supreme Court of New Zealand; Alexander Wellington Croskery, Esquire, of Wellington, Secretary; Arthur James Dickson, Esquire, B.E., A.M.I.C.E., M.N.Z.I.E., M.R.San.I., of Auckland, City Engineer; and Charles Alexander Woolley, Esquire, of Wellington, Fire-brigade Superintendent: GREETING.

WHEREAS on the eighteenth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, a disastrous fire occurred at the premises of Messrs. J. Ballantyne and Company, Limited, situated in Colombo and Cashel Streets, in the City of Christchurch:

And whereas a number of persons lost their lives and extensive damage to property occurred by reason of the said fire:

And whereas it is expedient that a full inquiry be made into all the circumstances concerning the fire and the resultant loss of life and damage to property:

And whereas it is desirable that inquiry should be made into such other matters arising from the said fire as may be necessary to enable consideration to be given to the adoption in the future of such measures as may be deemed advisable in the public interest:

Now know ye that We, reposing trust and confidence in your integrity, knowledge, and ability, do hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint you, the said—

Sir Harold Featherston Johnston,
Alexander Wellington Croskery,
Arthur James Dickson, and Charles Alexander Woolley
to be a Commission to inquire into and report upon the following matters:—

(1) The cause and origin of the fire;
(2) Whether all possible means were taken to warn the staff and the members of the public in the premises of the existence and seriousness of the fire, and whether all possible steps were taken to provide for their safety and escape;
(3) Whether any special circumstances contributed to the rapid spread of the fire and, if there were such circumstances, whether the fire hazard could have been reduced by the installation of fire-prevention equipment or by any other means;
(4) Whether the structural design of the building and the fire-protection and egress arrangements complied with all relevant statutes and regulations, and with all relevant by-laws in force in the City of Christchurch;
(5) The adequacy and administration of all existing relevant statutes and regulations and all existing relevant by-laws in force in the City of Christchurch in regard to (a) fire protection and fire-prevention in such buildings, and (b) the construction and design of such buildings in relation to the safety of the public;
(6) The desirability of applying to existing buildings any present or future statutes, regulations, or by-laws providing for adequate means of egress from buildings in case of fire;
(7) The desirability of occupiers of business premises instructing their staffs in the principles of fire-prevention, evacuation drill, and the elementary principles of fire-fighting;
(8) The effectiveness of the operations conducted and the equipment employed by the Christchurch Fire-brigade to combat the said fire;
(9) Whether, as the result of the evidence submitted, the Commission has any, and if so, what recommendation to make as to the principles which should in the public interest be adopted for protection against fire in existing buildings generally of a type similar to the Ballantyne building;
(10) And generally upon such other matters arising thereout as may come to your notice in the course of your inquiries which you consider should be investigated in connection therewith and upon any matters affecting the premises which you consider should be brought to the attention of the Government;

And We do hereby appoint you, the said

to be Chairman of the said Commission:

And for the better enabling you to carry these presents into effect you are hereby authorized and empowered to make and conduct any inquiry under these presents at such time and place as you deem expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and place to place as you think fit, and so that these presents shall continue in force, and the inquiry may at any time and place be resumed although not regularly adjourned from time to time or from place to place.
And you are hereby strictly charged and directed that you shall not at any time publish or otherwise disclose save to His Excellency the Governor-General, in pursuance of these presents, or by His Excellency’s direction, the contents of any report so made or to be made by you, or any evidence or information obtained by you in the exercise of the powers hereby conferred upon you except such evidence or information as is received in the course of a sitting open to the public:

And it is hereby declared that the powers hereby conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the absence at any time of any one or any two of the members hereby appointed so long as the Chairman, or a member deputed by the Chairman to act in his stead, and one other member be present and concur in the exercise of such powers:

And We do further ordain that you have liberty to report your proceedings and findings under this Our Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient so to do:

And, using all due diligence, you are required to report to His Excellency the Governor-General in writing under your hands and seals not later than the thirtieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight, your findings and opinions on the matters aforesaid, together with such recommendations as you think fit to make in respect thereof:

And, lastly, it is hereby declared that these presents are issued under the authority of the Letters Patent of His late Majesty dated the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and under the authority of and subject to the provisions of the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1908, and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Dominion of New Zealand.

In witness whereof We have caused this Our Commission to be issued and the Seal of Our Dominion of New Zealand to be hereunto affixed at Wellington, this tenth day of December, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, and in the eleventh year of Our Reign.

Witness Our Trusty and Well-beloved Sir Bernard Cyril Freyberg, upon whom has been conferred the Decoration of the Victoria Cross, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight Commander of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Commander of Our Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, Companion of Our Distinguished Service Order, Doctor of Laws, Lieutenant-General in Our Army, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over Our Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion.

B. C. FREYBERG, Governor-General.

By His Excellency’s Command—

H. G. R. MASON,
For the Minister of Internal Affairs.

Approved in Council—

W. O. HARVEY, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Price Order No. 792 (Onions)

Pursuant to the powers conferred on it by the Control of Prices Act, 1947, the Price Tribunal, acting with the authority of the Minister of Industries and Commerce doth hereby make the following Price Order:

Preliminary

1. This Order may be cited as Price Order No. 792, and shall come into force on the 14th day of December, 1947.

2. (1) Price Order No. 618* is hereby revoked.

(2) The revocation of the said Price Order shall not affect the liabilities or effects of any offence in relation thereto committed before the coming into force of this Order.

3. (1) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires,

"the said Act" means the Control of Prices Act, 1947;

"Distributor", in relation to any lot of onions, means a wholesaler, as defined in the said Act, who sells those onions otherwise than to a retailer for purposes of retail sale;

"Grower", in relation to onions, means a person engaged in the production of growing onions;

"Grower's station", in relation to any grower, means the railway-station that is nearest or most convenient of access to the grower's premises;

"New season onions" means onions which are the produce of seed sown earlier than the 1st day of February and marketed before the 1st day of March in the following year:

The expression "F.O.R.S.E." means free on rail, sacks or other containers extra.

(2) References in this Order to grades are references to grades of onions determined in accordance with the Board of Trade (Onion) Regulations 1938.

(3) In computing for the purposes of this Order the weight of any onions no account shall be taken of the weight of any thick necks or tops that may be attached thereto.

(4) Terms and expressions defined in the said Act when used in this Order have the meanings severally assigned thereto by that Act.

4. Subject to any general or specific directions that may be given by or on behalf of the Tribunal, any expenses that are reasonably incurred by a wholesaler or retailer in undertaking the transport of any onions at his own expense may be regarded for the purposes of this Order as if they were transport charges paid by him, and the maximum price of any onions sold by him shall be determined accordingly.

5. The provisions of this Order shall apply notwithstanding that any onions to which the Order is applicable are sold otherwise than by weight.

6. The several prices, allowances, and margins of profit fixed by this Order apply with respect to each item, the grade of the onions comprised in the item.

Application of this Order

7. (1) This Order applies with respect to all onions grown in New Zealand (except onions of the type known to the trade as "spring onions" and "shallots") that are sold by any grower, distributor, wholesaler, or retailer for human consumption.

(2) Every sale of any such onions shall be deemed to be a sale for human consumption unless at the time of the sale there is a bona fide sale or stipulation between the buyer and the seller that the onions to which the sale relates are intended for a specific purpose other than human consumption.

Fixing Prices of Onions to which this Order Applies

Growers' Prices

8. (1) The maximum price that may be charged or received by any wholesaler on any onions to which this Order applies shall be at the rate of the appropriate price prescribed in the following scale, namely:

<table>

| For delivery in October | 15 |
| For delivery in November | 15 |
| For delivery in December | 15 |
| F.O.R.S.E. the grower's station | 16 |

(2) Where any onions sold by a grower are delivered by him otherwise than F.O.R.S.E., the grower's station, the maximum price which may be charged by the grower shall be the appropriate price fixed in accordance with subclause (1) hereof, increased by the amount of the charges (if any) incurred by him in effecting delivery, and then reduced by the amount of the charges that would have been incurred by him if he had delivered the onions F.O.R.S.E. the grower's station.

Distributors' Prices

9. The maximum price that may be charged or received by any grower for any onions to which this Order applies shall be at the rate of a price per ton equal to the sum of the following amounts:

(a) The price per ton actually paid or payable by the grower to the grower by the wholesaler or retailer for purposes of retail sale shall be at the rate of a price per ton equal to the sum of the following amounts:

(b) The grading, transport, or other charges (if any) actually paid by the wholesaler or retailer on each ton of the onions:

(c) An amount equal to 23 per cent. of the amount specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) hereof (to cover the estimated cost due to shrinkage or other natural causes):

(d) An amount computed at the rate of 30s. a ton for lots of 5 cwt. or less that exceed the maximum price at 40s. a ton for lots of less than 5 tons.

For other purposes and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the said Act, anyone who sells any onions by retail in quantities of not less than 5 cwt. to any one purchaser for delivery at one time shall in respect of such sale be deemed to be a wholesaler, and the prices fixed by the last preceding subclause shall apply accordingly with respect to every such sale.

Distributors and other Wholesalers to specify Grades of Onions on Relevant Invoice

12. Every distributor or other wholesaler who sells any onions to which this Order applies shall specify in the relevant invoice, with respect to each item, the grade of the onions comprised in the item.

Retailers' Prices

13. (1) Except as provided in subclause (2) of clause 11 hereof and subject to the provisions of subclauses (4), (5), (6), and (7) hereof, the maximum price that may be charged or received by any retailer for any onions to which this Order applies shall be at the rate of a price per pound equal to the sum of the following amounts:

(a) The price per pound actually paid or payable by the retailer for the onions:

(b) The transport or other charges (if any) paid or payable by the retailer on each pound of the onions:

(c) An amount equal to 35 per cent. of the total of the amounts specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) hereof.

(2) The retail price of any onions, computed in accordance with the last preceding subclause, shall be calculated by reference to the prices and weights disclosed in the appropriate invoice.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing provisions of this clause, but subject to the provisions of subclauses (4) and (5) hereof, the retail price of any onions to which this Order applies shall not in any case exceed a price at the rate of the appropriate price specified in the following scale, namely:
