Altering and Redefining the Boundaries of the Kiwitea and the Oroua Rabbit Districts.—(Notice No. 45/14)

B. C. FREYBERG, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 19th day of May, 1948

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. P. FRASER PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

WHEREAS by section thirty-three of the Rabbit Exclusions Act, 1928 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), it is enacted that the boundaries of two or more contiguous rabbit districts may from time to time be altered by the Governor-General in Council in accordance with a resolution proposing the alteration, passed by the Board of each of the districts affected:

And whereas the districts known as the "Kiwitea Rabbit District" and the "Oroua Rabbit District" (hereinafter referred to as the said districts) have been constituted under and for the purposes of Part II of the said Act:

And whereas a resolution was passed by the Board of the Kiwitea Rabbit District on the tenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, and a similar resolution was passed by the Board of the Oroua Rabbit District on the twelfth day of the same month praying in each case for the alteration of the boundaries of the said districts in the manner described in the said resolutions and in the First Schedule hereto;

And whereas it is deemed expedient to alter and redefine the boundaries of the said districts in accordance with the said resolutions and in the manner hereinafter provided:

NOW, therefore, in pursuance of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by the said Act, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby alter and redefine the boundaries of the said districts so constituted as aforesaid, and doth hereby declare—

1. That the area described in the First Schedule hereto, being now part of the Kiwitea Rabbit District, shall be added to and form part of the Oroua Rabbit District;

2. That the boundaries of the Kiwitea Rabbit District shall be those set forth in the Second Schedule hereto;

3. That the boundaries of the Oroua Rabbit District shall be those set forth in the Third Schedule hereto; and

4. That this Order in Council shall take effect on the date of the publication thereof in the Gazette.

FIRST SCHEDULE

Area Excluded from the Kiwitea Rabbit District and Included in the Oroua Rabbit District

All that area in the Wellington Land District, containing by admeasurement 1,940 acres, more or less, being Sections 1, 1a, 1b, 2, 3, 4, 5, 13, 4, 7, 8, 9, 14, 15, 16, 20, and 21 of Block XIV, Ongaro Survey District, and then proceeding in a westerly direction along the south boundaries of the said Section 14, Sections 13 and 12 of the said Block XIV, Section 11 of Block XIII, and the prolongation of the last-mentioned boundary to a point in the middle of the Mangateo River; thence towards the north-east, east, and south-east generally along the middle of the Mangateo River to a point in line with the east boundary-line of the aforesaid Section 14 of Block XIV, Ongaro Survey District; then to a southerly direction and by the east boundary of the said Section 14 to the south-eastern corner thereof, the place of commencement.

SECOND SCHEDULE

REGULATIONS

1. These regulations may be cited as the Regulations for the New Zealand Military Forces 1927, Amendment No. 60.

2. These regulations shall be read with and form part of the Regulations for the New Zealand Military Forces 1927, published in the Gazette on the 25th day of May, 1927, at page 1555 (hereunder called the principal regulations).

3. These regulations shall come into force on the day following notification in the Gazette of the making thereof.

4. Regulation 129 of the principal regulations, as amended by the Regulations for the New Zealand Military Forces 1927, Amendment No. 57, is further amended by adding the following paragraph:

"(vii) All promotions of officers require the approval of the Minister of Defence."

5. Regulations 624 to 638 (inclusive) of the principal regulations are revoked and the following substituted:

"Leave—N.Z. Regular Force"

624A. Leave is classified as follows:

- Travelling Leave
- Overseas Drafting Leave
- Annual Leave
- Overseas Leave
- Statutory Holidays
- Business Leave
- Week-end Leave
- Retiring Leave
- Compassionate Leave
- Sick Leave
- Examination Leave

624B. The leave scales as herein laid down apply to all ranks of the N.Z. Regular Force.

624C. All leave will be inclusive of Sundays lost exclusive of statutory holidays and will be on full pay and allowances unless otherwise stated.

624E. For the purpose of these regulations, the expression "bona fide home" means any place in New Zealand which is:

(a) The place of residence of the wife of a married officer or soldier or, in the case of a widower or officer or soldier divorced or separated (legally or otherwise) and having custody of children, the place of residence laid down in (b) below.

(b) (i) The place of residence of the parents or recorded next-of-kin of an unmarried officer or soldier living in camp; or

(ii) The place of enlistment, provided subparagraph (b) above does not apply.

(c) The usual place of residence for the time being of an unmarried officer or soldier not living in camp; provided, however, that if, prior to being employed on full-time service, he normally resided with his parents or in a place of residence maintained by him for his own use (i.e., not as lodger) his home shall be regarded as the place of residence of his parents or the original place of residence maintained, as the case may be.

"Marital Status"

632A. (a) The expression 'married officers or soldiers' includes the following:

(i) Married officers or soldiers living under normal domestic relationship with their wives.

(ii) Widowers with children.

(iii) Officers or soldiers who have a 'reputed wife' and for whom the married scale of pay and allowances has been approved.

(iv) Officers or soldiers who, while under the married scale of pay and allowances, have been approved.

(b) The expression 'unmarried officers or soldiers' includes all those not classed as married in the terms provided above.

"Responsibility of Commanding Officers"

632B. Commanding Officers will be responsible that the interests of their subordinates regarding leave are preserved, and that any leave arrangements through the exigencies of the service is made up without unnecessary delay.

"Free Travelling Warrants"

626. (a) Free travelling return warrants from station to bona fide home may be issued at the scale set out below, provided that the journey in one direction, by the most direct surface route, is in excess of fifty miles:—

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Status</th>
<th>Warrant Length</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Single officers</td>
<td>1 day</td>
<td>Home</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Married officers</td>
<td>2 days</td>
<td>Home</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Regular Force</td>
<td>3 days</td>
<td>Home</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

626B. Officers or soldiers will not quit the Dominion without permission from Army Headquarters. Permission for such permission will be forwarded through the usual channels.

"Quitting the Dominion"

627A. Officers or soldiers who have a 'reputed wife' and for whom leave for a statutory holiday cannot be given, will notify their Commanding Officer of their address while on leave, and will subsequently advise any change of address during such leave.

"Statutory Holidays"

627B. Officers or soldiers will not quit the Dominion without permission from Army Headquarters. Permission for such permission will be forwarded through the usual channels.

628. When the time taken in travelling by officers or soldiers on annual leave visiting their bona fide homes and returning to station is in excess of forty-eight hours, such excess time will be granted as travelling leave and will not be reckoned as part of their annual leave.

"Annual Leave"

629A. Annual leave will be granted as follows:

(a) Regular Force cadets and recruits under nineteen years of age undergoing training in a training establishment: Thirty days per annum (excluding travelling leave).

(b) Others: Twenty-four days per annum (excluding travelling leave).

(b) On the approval of the Adjutant-General, recruits over nineteen years of age undergoing training in a training establishment may be granted leave as for cadets under nineteen years of age. Instructions will be issued from time to time to cover each group of cases.

Annual Leave Period

629B. (a) The annual leave period will be from 1st April in any year to 31st March in the following year. All leave due for such period must be taken before the 30th April following such leave period, except as provided in Regulation 629c, or unless approval for deferral is given by the Adjutant-General.

(b) Annual leave for the leave period during which an officer or soldier is retired will be calculated proportionately on a daily basic according to service during that leave period to the date of commencement of retiring leave.

Accumulation of Annual Leave

630A. If an officer or soldier desires to accumulate annual leave, he may be allowed to do so for two years only, subject to his giving notice to his Commanding Officer before the 31st July in the year on account of which he desires to accumulate his leave.

Approval of Annual Leave

630B. (a) Applications for annual leave not exceeding seven days may be approved by Unit Commanders.

(b) Applications for annual leave in excess of seven days may, on the recommendation of the Unit Commanders, be approved by District (or equivalent) Commanders.

Statutory Holidays

630A. (a) The following days will be observed as statutory holidays:

- Christmas Day
- New Year's Day
- Boxing Day
- Good Friday
- Anzac Day
- Labour Day
- Sovereign's Birthday
- Holy Saturday
- Anniversary Day of the Province

(b) If leave for a statutory holiday cannot be given, equivalent leave must be granted within one month or the leave will be forfeited.

(c) Statutory holidays occurring during the retiring leave of an officer or soldier will not be granted in addition to retiring leave.

Week-end Leave

630B. Leave on Saturdays and Sundays and at night during the week may be granted by Unit Commanders, subject to military requirements permit, without being a debit against annual leave.
Compassionate Leave

631. Compassionate leave may be granted under the following conditions on the approval of District (or equivalent) Commanders. Such leave will not be a charge against annual leave except as provided in (c) below:

(a) An officer or soldier may be granted three days’ leave, plus travelling leave, in the case of the death of his mother, father, wife, child, sister, or brother.

(b) On production of satisfactory proof that his wife is about to be or has been recently confined, three days’ leave, plus travelling leave, may be granted to an officer or soldier living away from his home.

(c) Any leave granted in excess of three days, plus travelling leave, will be deducted from annual leave or, if there is no balance of annual leave available, will be granted as leave without pay.

Examination Leave

632. Examination leave may be granted on approval of the Adjutant-General to cover the actual period of an examination. Such leave will not be a charge against annual leave or salary in cases of study prior to an examination and will not, unless the Adjutant-General so directs, be reckoned as a charge against annual leave.

Overseas Drafting Leave

633a. Overseas drafting leave, plus travelling leave, may be granted on the following scale to an officer or soldier proceeding overseas without being a charge against annual leave:

(a) If married and living at home and being accompanied overseas by his wife at public expense: Seven days.

(b) If married and stationed away from home and being accompanied overseas by his wife at public expense: Fourteen days.

(c) In all other cases and where service overseas is to exceed six months: Up to seven days, provided that a married officer or soldier stationed away from home may to give leave up to fourteen days if the absence overseas is to be twelve months or more, and, with the approval of the Adjutant-General, up to seven days, provided the absence is substantial but less than six months.

(d) Applications for Overseas Drafting Leave may, except where otherwise provided in (c) above, be approved by District (or equivalent) Commanders.

Overseas Leave

633b. On the approval of the Adjutant-General, officers or soldiers returning to New Zealand after service overseas may be granted leave in accordance with the following scale:

(a) One day’s special leave for each two months’ service overseas, provided that such absence is in excess of six months.

(b) Where the period of service overseas is in excess of one year, up to twenty-one days’ leave, plus leave as in (a) below, may be granted for each complete year of absence overseas. This leave will be inclusive of special leave as in (a) above, and any balance of annual leave due. Leave for incomplete years will be calculated proportionally on a daily basis.

(c) Leave to enable them to spend the full period of overseas service as in (a) above at home, provided they travel by the most direct surface route (or equivalent) from port of disembarkation to their home.

(d) Service overseas shall be calculated from the date of embarkation in New Zealand to the date of disembarkation on return to New Zealand.

Business Leave

634. Special business leave may be granted to an officer or soldier on approval of the Adjutant-General. Application for such leave will be dealt with as soon as possible, if approved, leave will be without pay or as a deduction from annual leave.

Retiring Leave

635. On approval of the Adjutant-General special leave of absence may be granted on the following scale to all officers or soldiers on retirement, provided that the sick leave taken in the twelve months preceding retirement has not exceeded three months:

(a) Retiring on superannuation or compensation in lieu of superannuation: Three months.

(b) Discharged for own purposes and not receiving gratuity—

(i) Under ten years’ service: No leave.

(ii) Ten years’ service or under twenty years: One month.

(iii) Twenty years’ service and over: Six weeks.

(c) Invalided: One to three months.

Excess

(1) If discharged within six months of entry for medical reasons which can be certified as having existed prior to entry: Fourteen days.

(2) If discharged within six months of entry for medical reasons where medical disability was willfully concealed on entry: Only such leave as may be approved by the Adjutant-General.

(3) If discharged for medical reasons attributable to own misconduct or neglect: Only such leave as may be determined by the Adjutant-General.

(d) Services dispensed with through no fault of own (other than for medical reasons) before reaching the retiring age or on completion of a limited engagement and not receiving a gratuity:

(i) Under five years’ continuous service: Up to one month.

(ii) Five years and under ten years: Two months.

(iii) Ten years and over: Three months.

(e) Officers or soldiers discharged for reasons other than in the preceding subparagraphs shall not receive more than fourteen days’ leave, and, in any case, less than one year’s service, up to seven days only.

(f) The Minister may, at his discretion, grant an equivalent payment by way of an allowance in lieu of leave which may be granted under subparagraph (a) above.

Sick Leave

636. Sick leave may be granted to all ranks of the N.Z. Regular Force, excluding soldiers of the Home Service Section, as follows:

(a) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (b) below, sick leave when granted will be on full pay and allowances and will not be charged against annual leave. Pay will include pay for temporary rank, except where temporary rank is relinquished under subparagraph (m) below:

(i) Absence from duty on account of injury or illness, whether or not in hospital, shall be regarded as sick leave.

(ii) Officers or soldiers absent from duty on account of injury or illness will report their absence to their Commanding Officer. Where such absence is for any continuous period longer than six months, they will cease to be forwarded to their Commanding Officer a medical certificate stating the nature of disability and the probable period of absence from duty. Notwithstanding that such period of three days has not elapsed, a Commanding Officer may, at his discretion, require the forwarding of such certificate.

(iii) A District Commander (or equivalent) may grant sick leave up to fourteen days. Where an extension or longer period is required, the approval of the Adjutant-General must be obtained.

(iv) Sick leave up to two months may be granted by the Adjutant-General, but any request for extension of such sick leave or for sick leave for a period exceeding two months shall require the approval of the Army Board.

(v) Officers or soldiers who have been absent on sick leave for a continuous period of over three months will not be permitted to return to duty until passed by a Medical Board as fit to resume duty.

(vi) Where officers or soldiers are considered to be physically unfit for service because they are frequently on the sick list or for any other reason, a report by a Medical Board shall be obtained and forwarded to Army Headquarters for further action.

(vii) Sick leave on full pay shall be granted in accordance with the following scale. Leave may be granted in more than one period, but the aggregate amount of leave on pay provided in the scale is intended to cover the whole period of service:

(j) The following cases shall be dealt with on their merits by the Adjutant-General, and are the only exceptions to the scale laid down in subparagraph (b) above:

(i) Disability due to a wound, injury, or illness, such disability being attributable to service or related to service or due to the fault, negligence, or misconduct of the officer or soldier concerned.

(ii) Disability arising out of war service.

(b) Where, under subparagraph (j) above, any special sick leave is granted which for the time being is in excess of the scale set out in subparagraph (b) above, such excess leave, whenever it is regarded as in excess of the scale set out in subparagraph (j) hereof is included in the aggregate leave, but such leave shall, nevertheless, be noted on the officer’s or soldier’s leave record.

(f) Where it is necessary for an officer or soldier to be isolated on account of an infectious condition in his household or elsewhere, any such period of isolation shall count against normal sick leave. Absence in these cases shall be supported by a medical certificate.

(m) In the case of prostrated illnesses, an officer or soldier will relinquish temporary rank, if any, after a continuous period of twenty-eight days’ sick leave.

(n) An officer or soldier who has commenced retiring leave shall not be granted sick leave.

Price Order No. 883 (Meadow Hay)

PURSUANT to the powers conferred on it by the Control of Prices Act, 1947, the Price Tribunal, sitting with the authority of the Minister of Industries and Commerce, doth hereby make the following Price Order:

1. This Order may be cited as Price Order No. 883, and shall come into force on the 28th day of May, 1948, and shall expire on the 30th day of June, 1948.

2. (1) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires,—

"The said Act" means the Control of Prices Act, 1947:

"Distributor", in relation to any produce to which this Order applies, means a wholesaler as defined in the said Act who sells any such produce otherwise than to a retailer for retail sale:

"Grower", in relation to any produce to which this Order applies, means a person engaged in the business of growing any such produce for sale:

The expression "f.o.r." means free of rail.

(2) Terms and expressions defined in the said Act, when used in this Order, have the meanings severally assigned thereto by that Act.

APPLICATION OF THIS ORDER

3. This Order applies with respect to all meadow hay produced in the North Island of New Zealand.

FIXING MAXIMUM GROWERS’ AND DISTRIBUTORS’ PRICES OF PRODUCTS TO WHICH THIS ORDER APPLIES

Growers’ Price

4. The maximum price that may be charged or received by any grower for any produce to which this Order applies shall be £7 10s. per ton f.o.r. the greater of—

(a) The amount actually paid or payable to the grower:

(b) The amount of any transport, insurance, or other charges incurred by the grower in obtaining delivery from the grower and effecting delivery to the purchaser, reduced by the amount of any subsidy received by the grower on account of such charges:

(c) An amount calculated at the rate of 10s. per ton.

Dated at Wellington, this 26th day of May, 1948.

The Seal of the Price Tribunal was affixed hereto in the presence of—

W. J. HUTCH (Judge), President.

P. N. HOLSWORTH, Member.

AUCKLAND CITY COUNCIL

Resolution making Special Rate

Parks and Reserves Loan, 1947, £9,000

The following resolution was duly passed at a meeting of the Auckland City Council held on the 6th day of May, 1948, viz. —

"That, for the purpose of providing the interest, repayment of principal, and other charges on a loan of £9,600, authorized to be raised by the Auckland City Council under the above-mentioned Acts, for the purpose of acquiring an area of approximately one and three-quarter acres of land in Upper Queen Street for recreational purposes, the said Auckland City Council hereby makes and levies a special rate of one twenty-third of one penny (1/23d.) in the pound made and levied on the rateable value (on the basis of the annual value) of the City of Auckland, comprising the whole of the rateable area of said Auckland City; and that such special rate shall be an annual-recurring rate during the currency of such loan and shall be payable yearly on the 1st day of June in each and every year during the currency of such loan, being a period of twenty-five years or until the loan is fully paid off."

J. ALLUM, Mayor.

T. W. M. ASHBY, Town Clerk.

The following resolution was duly passed at a meeting of the Auckland City Council held on the 6th day of May, 1948.

THE OTAGO PRESIDENTIAN CHURCH BOARD OF PROPERTY AMENDMENT ACT, 1949

This amendment is to enable the moneys previously applied as aforesaid to be applied in future to objects or purposes similar to the previous objects or purposes, but taking account of the changed circumstances which now exist. Such altered objects and purposes are, in general, to be for the promotion of secular and religious education in the Province of Otago consistent with the original trust for the advancement of education, so that the community as well as the Church will receive the greatest possible benefit.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office on the 14th day of June, 1948.

MESSRS. DONWIE STEWART, PAYNE, FORRESTER, AND ARMSTONG, Solicitors for the Petitioner.

No. 5 Liverpool Street, Dunedin.
