“Spirits” means whisky, rum, brandy or gin:

“Standard measure” means five-eighths of an ounce.

(2) Terms and expressions defined in the Licensing Act, 1908, when used in this Order, have the meanings severally assigned thereto by that Act.

(2) Where any drink containing a full standard measure or more than a full standard measure of spirits, other than French brandy, is sold for consumption in a lounge or a dining-room of licensed premises, the maximum price of the drink shall be 1s. for each full standard measure of spirits contained in the drink. Where any such drink sold as aforesaid contains less than a full standard measure of spirits, the maximum price of the drink shall be 9d.
