1. This Order may be cited as Price Order No. 988, and shall be read together with and deemed part of Price Order No. 982* (hereinafter referred to as the principal Order).

2. This Order shall come into force on the 4th day of April, 1949.

3. Clause 7 of the principal Order is hereby amended by revoking subclause (2), and substituting the following subclause:

"(2) Subject to the provisions of this clause, the maximum price that may be charged or received by any retail storekeeper carrying on business elsewhere than in one of the places specified in the last preceding subclause shall be the appropriate price fixed in the last preceding subclause, increased by the appropriate proportion of any transport-costs that would have been incurred if the sugar had been purchased by a retailer in one of the places specified in the last preceding subclause that is nearest or convenient of access to the premises of the storekeeper.

Provided that nothing in this subclause shall be construed to authorize the addition of any amount in excess of the appropriate proportion of the transport-costs that would have been incurred if the sugar had been purchased by a retailer in one of the places specified in the last preceding subclause that is nearest or convenient of access to the premises of the storekeeper, and been conveyed to the storekeeper by the most economical route normally available at a cost not exceeding the cost that would have been incurred if delivery had been effected by a common carrier at current rates."
