Constitution of Rural Fire District

B. C. FREYBERG, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 6th day of April, 1949

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. P. FRASER PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Forest and Rural Fires Act, 1947, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby constitute and declare the area described in the First Schedule hereto to be a rural fire district, to be known as the "Matahina Rural Fire District"; and doth hereby specify the trees and other plants situated on the lands described in the Second Schedule hereto as the property for the protection of which the district is constituted; and doth hereby further specify the period between the first day of October in any one year and the thirtieth day of April in the following year (both days inclusive) as a closed fire season in the said district; and doth hereby declare that this Order in Council shall come into force, and that the Matahina Rural Fire District shall become a rural fire district, on the day following publication of this Order in Council in the Gazette; and doth hereby prescribe that the said district shall be administered for the purposes of the said Act by a rural fire committee, which shall be known as the "Matahina Rural Fire Committee," and, with respect to the said Rural Fire Committee, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. IN these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- "Act" means the Forest and Rural Fires Act, 1947;
- "Committee" means the Matahina Rural Fire Committee constituted by these regulations;
- "District" means the Matahina Rural Fire District;
- "Farmer" means the occupier of land within the district, the whole or substantially the whole of which is used by him for farming purposes;
- "Minister" means the Commissioner of State Forests.

2. The Rural Fire Committee Regulations 1949, shall, so far as they are applicable, and with the necessary modifications, apply to the Matahina Rural Fire Committee constituted by these regulations and these regulations shall be deemed to be special regulations for the purpose of those regulations.

MEMBERS

3. The Committee shall consist of five members, who shall be appointed in the following manner:—

- (a) Two members shall be appointed by Whakatane Board Mills, Limited, as agent for Timberlands Woodpulp Extended, Limited, Timberlands Woodpulp Development, Limited, and Timberlands Woodpulp Estates, Limited, by writing signed on behalf of that company by one director and the secretary thereof. In the event of any member of the Committee appointed as aforesaid ceasing to hold office, the said company shall be entitled to fill up the vacancy, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the Rural Fire Committee Regulations 1949;
- (b) One member (herein referred to as the remaining forest owners' representative) shall be appointed either by a resolution passed by a majority of those present at a meeting of owners of forests on lands described in the Second Schedule hereto, or by a majority vote by ballot of those present at such a meeting, as those so present by resolution determine;
- (c) One member (herein referred to as the sawmillers' representative) shall be appointed either by a resolution passed by a majority of those present at a meeting of sawmill or logging proprietors carrying on business as such within the district, or by a majority vote by ballot of those present at such a meeting, as those so present by resolution determine;
- (d) One member (herein referred to as the farmers' representative) shall be appointed either by a resolution passed by a majority of farmers present at a meeting of farmers, or by a majority vote by ballot of those present at such a meeting as those so present by resolution determine.

4. The General Manager, Whakatane Board Mills, Limited, shall be the Returning Officer for the first appointment of the remaining forest owners' representative, and the sawmillers' representative, and shall convene such meetings, conduct such ballots, and take such other steps as may be required for the first appointments, and shall also convene the first meeting of the Committee. Thereafter, the Secretary of the Committee shall be the Returning Officer.
