2. (1) Price Order No. 783* is hereby revoked.

3. For the purposes of this or any other Order, the expression "public hotel" shall mean any premises in respect of which a publican's licence or an accommodation licence is in force under the Licensing Act, 1965.

4. "Private hotel" and "boardinghouse" mean respectively premises where the principal business carried on is the provision of board and lodging for persons resident therein, but do not include any such premises where the number of lodgers usually resident therein is less than five.

Application of this Order

4. (1) This Order does not apply with respect to meals served in any public or private hotel or in any boardinghouse.

5. (1) The amounts specified in the Schedule hereto as authorized additional prices for extras may be charged only for the extras specified and only where the particular extra is supplied with a meal in the group in respect of which the extra is specified.

6. In respect of the service of meals to which this Order applies, the quality and quantity of such meals, and all amenities and services heretofore provided in connection therewith by the purveyor, must be maintained.

7. A menu written in English and showing the prices and details of meals and extras available shall be submitted by the purveyor to each customer when he orders a meal.

8. It shall be the duty of all purveyors of meals to which this Order applies to keep a copy of the Order prominently displayed in his premises so that customers may examine it prior to making their order. 12. Notwithstanding anything in the provisions of this Order and subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, the Tribunal, on application by any purveyor of meals, may authorize special prices in respect of meals (including extra charges) provided by the purveyor while the approval remains in force.
