Vesting the Control of a Reserve in the Levels County Council

B. C. FREYBERG, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 16th day of November, 1949

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. P. FRASER PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

WHEREAS the land described in the Schedule hereto has been duly set apart as a reserve for a resting place for travelling stock and a site for a stock saleyard: And whereas it is expedient that the control of the said reserve should be vested in the Levels County Council:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section seventeen of the Public Reserves, Domains, and National Parks Act, 1928, doth hereby vest the control of the said reserve in the Levels County Council, subject to the conditions hereinafter contained, that is to say:—

(1) The period for which the control of the reserve is hereby vested shall be five years from the date hereof.

(2) The said Council shall control the said reserve for the purpose of providing accommodation for travelling stock, and, if necessary, for the purpose of a stock saleyard, and the reserve shall at all times be available for such purposes.

(3) The charges for grazing and paddocking stock shall not exceed two shillings per hundred head for sheep and twopence per head for cattle. Provision shall be made for keeping different flocks of sheep and herds of cattle separate as far as possible.

(4) Except under stress of weather, or in cases where roads are temporarily impassable, no stock which has been accommodated in the reserve for one night and one day shall be permitted to remain therein for any longer period if other stock requires accommodation which could not otherwise be provided except by the removal of the stock already in the reserve.
