Regulations Under the Naval Defence Act, 1913, Amended

B. C. FREYBERG, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington, this 6th day of December, 1949

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by section twenty-five of the Naval Defence Act, 1913, and of all the powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby amend and supplement the regulations referred to in the Schedule hereto as shown herein.

SCHEDULE

Regulations for the Government and Payment of the Royal New Zealand Navy, 1929

CHAPTER III.—ENTRY, TRAINING, ADVANCEMENT, DISCHARGE, ETC.: MEN

Articles 62 and 62A, cancel and substitute:—

"62. Discharge by Purchase.—Ratings of the regular Naval Forces may be permitted in special circumstances to purchase their discharge. Discharge by purchase cannot be claimed as a right and nothing in these Instructions shall interfere with the power of the Naval Board to suspend this concession, or to refuse discharge in a particular case.

"2. In normal circumstances, ratings who are permitted to take their discharge by purchase will retain their Reserve liabilities as laid down by the Naval Board.

"3. The Captain is to be careful not to entertain or forward an application without fully satisfying himself that the applicant has good and substantial reasons for seeking his discharge. He is to state whether or not the application is recommended by him as in the real interests of the applicant.

"4. Applications for discharge by purchase on compassionate grounds must be supported by clear evidence that undoubted material hardship to the applicant's dependants is involved by his or her retention in the Service. Proof will be required that the circumstances of the dependants have changed for the worse since the applicant entered the Service and that he is contributing to their support, through Service channels, an amount of his pay which inflicts hardship upon him, and which he could better afford as a civilian.

"5. Such applications should also be accompanied by a statement showing whether the purchase-money has been offered or lodged, and, if not, whether the Captain is satisfied that the circumstances of the applicant and/or his family preclude the possibility of finding sufficient funds to meet the full amount payable under the provisions of paragraph 9 or of any part thereof.

"6. Commanding Officers are to investigate each application and may forward to their Administrative Authority those which they recommend. They are to be made on Form S. 222 and are to be accompanied by the applicant's Service Certificate (or attested copy) and all relevant particulars including the following:—

"(a) Details of intended permanent employment and rate of wages offered:

"(b) Two independent certificates from men of standing e.g., the local Justice of the Peace and minister of religion, substantiating the applicant's claim to consideration and confirming that the offer of employment is of a bona fide permanent nature:

"(c) Medical certificate, where the application is preferred on compassionate grounds.

"7. If the Administrative Authority recommends the application should be granted, he is to transmit it to the Naval Board through the Commanding Officer, H.M.N.Z.S. 'Philomel,' who is to comment on the application from the manning point of view.

"When forwarding applications on compassionate grounds, the Administrative Authority is to state whether a reduction in the amount payable is recommended.

"8. The Naval Board will consider each case on its merits, and, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 9, may waive payment of the whole or such part of the purchase-money as may be determined in the case of applications recommended for consideration on compassionate grounds and which satisfy the requirements of paragraphs 4 and 5.
