Regulations Under the Naval Defence Act, 1913, Amended

B. C. FREYBERG, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington, this 19th day of July, 1950

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to section 25 of the Naval Defence Act, 1913, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

THE New Zealand Naval Regulations 1929* are hereby amended by inserting, after regulation 20,† the following regulation:—

"21. Deserters and Absentees.—A deserter or absentee from one of H.M.N.Z. ships who surrenders or is apprehended at any place outside New Zealand (other than Australia) is, until further orders to serve in a ship or establishment of the Royal Navy, if so directed by an order given by the Naval Board or by the senior New Zealand Naval Officer present, specifically naming him and the appropriate base ship of the Royal Navy in which he is to serve. A warrant under section 50 of the Naval Discipline Act is to be issued by one of the persons specified in that section before the issue of the order directing a deserter or absentee to serve in the appropriate base ship of the Royal Navy and is to be handed to the Royal Naval authorities together with extracts from the Ship's Books, certified in accordance with King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions Article 461, recording that the offender had been serving in the ship at the material date, his absence, and his discharge.

"2. On apprehension or surrender at any place outside New Zealand a deserter or absentee who has been directed to serve in an appropriate base ship of the Royal Navy shall serve in that ship, or any other ship of the Royal Navy to which the Royal Navy authorities shall appoint him, and shall continue to do so until discharged therefrom by those authorities."

T. J. SHERRARD,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
